

Miss Louise Chritzman Dies Of Heart Attack Enroute Here For Funeral Of Her Twin Sister

Enroute home from a trip that was brought to an abrupt end last Saturday by the death of her twin sister in Homestead, Pa., Miss Louise Chritzman, 137 Baltimore St., died this morning at 1:30 o'clock in a hospital in Laurinburg, N. C., from a heart attack.

Devoted to each other in life and almost inseparable companions, the twins, who were well known here for years as millinery store and beauty shop operators, were united in death today.

Miss Louise, grief stricken by her sister's death, suffered a heart attack at Laurinburg Monday evening while enroute here to attend funeral services for her sister.

Three Days To The Hour

Paul Sheadle of Williamsport, Pa., nephew of the Misses Chritzman who had been traveling through Florida with them and Mrs. Sheadle since February 2, had telephoned the Bender Funeral Home here about 8 p.m. Monday to discuss funeral plans for Miss Louise. He called back at 11 p.m. to say that Miss Louise had suffered a heart attack and was in a serious condition in the Laurinburg Hospital. He said the earlier funeral plans would have to be delayed.

Another telephone call this morning reported her death, three days to the hour after her twin sister.

Double funeral services will be arranged. The Bender Funeral Home will bring the body here from North Carolina for joint services, arrangements for which have not been completed.

Retired Four Years Ago

The Chritzman sisters were born in Gettysburg 79 years ago and lived here all their lives. They were daughters of the late William and Sarah (Weikert) Chritzman. They graduated from Gettysburg High School and both were active members of Christ Lutheran Church here.

For many years they conducted a millinery store at their home on Baltimore St. and later conducted a beauty parlor there until their retirement about four years ago.

The only immediate survivors are a sister, Mrs. Anna Sheadle, Pittsburgh, and a brother, Roland, Philadelphia. There are a number of nieces and nephews.

EXPECT $53,000 BUDGET BOOST IN UPPER ADAMS

The budget of the Upper Adams Joint School System will increase next year, possibly by $53,000, according to a report presented by the finance committee at Monday evening's session of the joint board at the Biglerville High School.

Lloyd Kleinfelter, chairman of the finance committee, said "present indications are that the 1954-55 budget will be around $362,000." For the 1953-54 year the school system budget totals $318,328.

Rental on the two new elementary schools to be started in the near future at Biglerville and Arendtsville will cause most of the increase in the budget, the finance committee chairman said.

Up For May Approval

The committee will present its budget report at the April 5 meeting of council. If tentative approval is given at that time, the budget will be up for final approval in May.

Kleinfelter, reporting as treasurer for the jointure, said expenditures so far this year total $218,457.18, indicating that the system is within its budgetary limitations for the current year. The treasurer's report showed $9,979.38 on hand with the districts scheduled to make payments into the jointure this month.

The board set April 5 as the date for opening bids on general and school supplies and authorized the sending out of invitations to bid to various school suppliers.

Child Suffers Chest Injuries In Crash

Ronald Beford, 10, Littlestown, suffered contusions of the chest, Monday afternoon, when auto driven by Charles William Shelton, 59, Taneytown R. 1, and Mrs. Gertrude Beford, 43, Littlestown, collided 50 feet west of Littlestown on the Hanover Rd.

State police said the youngster, who was a passenger in Mrs. Beford's car, was treated by Dr. Leonard Potter. Police added that Shelton apparently skidded in front of Mrs. Beford's vehicle, causing the two to collide. Damage was estimated at $450.

"Porter Guards" To Be Sheads' Subject

"The Porter Guards in Gettysburg in 1861" will be the subject of a talk this evening at the March meeting of the Adams County Historical Society by J. Melchoir Sheads, former president of the society and a member of the faculty at Gettysburg High School.

"The sojourn of the Guards (the 10th New York Cavalry) in Gettysburg is one of the many interesting episodes of the war in the border states," Dr. Frederick Tilberg, program chairman, said in announcing tonight's topic.

The meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock with a brief business meeting to precede the program. President Charles S. Diller will preside.

R. H. HAMMOND ELECTED HEAD OF ROTARY CLUB

Roy H. Hammond, head of the Blue Ridge Oil Company, was elected president of the Gettysburg Rotary club at a meeting of the board of directors following the regular session of the Rotary at the YWCA Monday evening. Hammond, who will take office in July, is currently vice president of the club.

Philip M. Jones was named vice president and Harold Reuning, sergeant-at-arms. Re-elected were Secretary Dr. Frederick Tilberg and Treasurer Calvin Shank.

Named as members of the new board at the regular meeting of the club were Hammond, Jones, G. Henry Roth, Frank Britcher and Rev. Victor K. Meredith Jr.

Charles H. Hoeflich, assistant vice president of the Philadelphia National Bank, was the speaker at the Rotary session.

"The latter part of 1954 and 1955 will see the greatest activity to seek the mind of man we have known, for 1955 is the year when the United Nations Charter will be up for revision and the one-worlders, and the socialists and the Europeans who have been longing for our wealth will be seeking to convince us that

DRAFT BOARDS WILL RESTUDY AG DEFERMENTS

The State Selective Service Commission today issued a notice ordering local draft boards to tighten their policy on agricultural deferments to farm workers within the 2-C classification bracket.

A memorandum to Pennsylvania boards from Lt. Col. Henry M. Gross, state director of selective service, told draft units to screen long deferments closely. "That the farm population be given an opportunity to serve in the armed forces at a time during their age of liability that will least disrupt an efficient farm operation."

A spokesman from the county draft board said the directive may directly affect the county farm population, "which is considered to have too many able-bodied men deferred under the 2-C classification."

Colonel Gross said that many registrants have been "under the impression that their military liability ceases when they reach

"Pancake Tuesday"

By ED CREAUGH (For Hal Boyle)

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eat, drink and be merry today. It's Shrove Tuesday, and Lent lasts a long time!

Shrove Tuesday? It's little noticed in most parts of these United States, though there's Mardi Gras in New Orleans and the golden brown potato doughnuts, or fast-nachts, sugar the teeth and glad-den the spirit in Reading, Pa.

And, after all, aren't the rest of us a pretty long-faced lot to be passing up a celebration which heartier folk have been enjoying since the Middle Ages.

Shrove Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday, has long been a time to store up warm memories—to say nothing of calories—for the Lenten days to come.

"Pancake Tuesday"

In England, where it used to be called "Pancake Tuesday," it was a day of general merrymaking—the Kentucky Derby day, so to speak, of cock fighting among other pastimes. Church bells summoned one and all not to worship but to wining and dining, and there was even a song about it:

"But hark, I hear the pan-cake bell
"And fritters make a gallant smell;
"The cooks are baking, frying, boiling,
"Stewing, mincing, cutting, broiling,
"Carving, gormandizing, roasting,
"Carbonading, cracking, slashing, toasting."

I don't know who made up that happy catalogue of cooking noises, but he could name his own salary as a writer of television commercials today.

"Fat Tuesday"

France still makes much of Shrove Tuesday, and in fact invented the name "Mardi Gras" or "Fat Tuesday" for the high jinks. Why "Fat Tuesday"? Because, unless the dictionary in front of me is wrong, it was and still is in some parts of northern France the custom to parade a fat ox ceremoniously through the streets.

(It also was the custom to use up on Shrove Tuesday the fats which couldn't be eaten during Lent, and that may be why they called it "Fat Tuesday," but you're not going to get me into any argument with a dictionary.)

COUNCIL SETS 11-MILL TAX RATE, ADOPTS $125,000 BUDGET

Gettysburg's town council set an 11 mill tax rate, adopted a $125,000 budget, purchased a new tar kettle, postponed buying a police car and discussed street lighting at its March meeting at the Fire Engine House, E. Middle St., Monday evening.

Council learned that the state has money available for the resurfacing of Buford Ave. from Seminary Ridge to Meade School, entered into an agreement with the Reading Railroad to lay a new storm sewer on Buford Ave., accepted a plan for street development in the Colt Park area and received the deed to the first block of Highland Ave. extended.

The bid of State Equipment Co., Harrisburg, to provide a tar kettle for $805 was accepted by council. Highway Equipment Supply Co., Harrisburg, the only other bidder, asked $914 for a similar 165-gallon bucket.

Safer Machine

The new tar bucket is similar to the one used by the town for 11 years, Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner said, with the addition of a power pump, plus the fact that the new mechanism will operate by bottled gas instead of kerosene. Council decided that the gas would be safer than kerosene, which on the present equipment requires the operator to remove the burner and light it outside the machine, then insert the burner after it is heated.

Adoption of the budget and the matter had been threshed out at the January meeting of council when both were adopted tentatively. The millage rate is the same as that levied last year.

Bids on a new police car were presented by the Adams County Motors Corp., Warren Chevrolet and McCauslin Auto Sales. Prices ranged from $866 to $1,780. The bids, for Fords, Chevrolets, Plymouths and Dodges, all listed optional equipment.

Action Is Deferred

Following a 15-minute recess during which the safety committee studied the bids, it asked council to postpone decision until the April meeting. The committee will inspect the cars to determine which meet with the specified requirements for police duty, and report at the April meeting.

Burgess William G. Weaver asked council to appropriate funds for summer pants for the police force. President H. M. Oyler said he felt council had appropriated a standing amount each year for police uniforms and directed a search of the

METERS GATHER $1,870 FOR TOWN IN FEBRUARY

Gettysburg borough has spent $15,182.38 so far this year, and enters March with a balance of $38,128.84. Treasurer John H. Basehor reported at Monday evening's meeting of Council.

Income for February was $3,107.98 while expenditures for the month totalled $8,304.18. Income included $20 from Paul L. Plank, $30 each from Justices of the Peace P. Snyder and John H. Basehor, representing fines collected; $1,870 from meter collections and $1,157.98 collected by Burgess William G. Weaver.

Expenditures during the month included $1,458.78 for general government; $2,546.15, protection to persons and property; $145.06, health and sanitation; $1,606.13, highways; $1,600, miscellaneous and $948.09 for lights.

$204 In Fines

Burgess Weaver's report showed collections of $204 for parking fines; $29 for four building permits representing construction of $18,500 in new structures; $200 for four digging permits, part of 33 issued during the month; $503.98 theater tax; $1 for a guide license; $60 payment of a moving bill and $160 insurance refund.

Fire Chief Donald Jacobs reported that the fire department answered seven calls in February, two inside the borough, with damage totalling $150 at those fires, and five outside the borough, with the fire trucks traveling 50 miles to and from the fires.

Chief of Police Jack Bartlett reported eight criminal arrests, five on disorderly charges, one on a surety of the peace and two for attempted larceny; sixteen traffic arrests; three accidents investigated; 73 investigations made on 81 complaints received by the police department; 16 funeral escorts, and 27 other investigations for state police, sheriff's office and various state and federal agencies.

Swimming Course For Boy Scouts

Members of the APO, Boy Scout fraternity, at Gettysburg College, will provide a swimming course for Boy Scouts and Explorers throughout the county, Charles S. Harris, Scout field executive, announced today.

Scouts wishing instruction in swimming are to report Wednesday evening, March 10, at 5:30 o'clock at the Gettysburg College swimming pool, where members of the APO will arrange with the scouts for the classes to be offered, and the dates on which the swimming instruction will be given.

DOUGLAS SMITH IS ELECTED TO SCHOOL BOARD

The Gettysburg School Board Monday evening filled the vacancy in its membership with all members present voting for Mr. Smith.

Smith got all the votes but the defeated candidate was Smith. Smith won, too.

Douglas W. Smith, E. Middle St., father of four—three of them in the public schools—was elected to fill out the unexpired term of County Treasurer Jacob G. Appler, who resigned in February. Smith is field engineer and electrical adviser for the Adams Electric Cooperative and is a partner in the Adams County Electric Appliance Co. on Carlisle St.

Serves To 1957

The other nominee was Charles A. Smith, W. High St., proprietor of the Spudnut Shop on York St.

Charles Smith, whose wife is president of the Gettysburg PTA, was nominated by Mrs. Erma D. Poppay, president of the Gettysburg board. Douglas Smith's name was entered in the race by Director Robert Dearthoff. Douglas Smith was elected on a secret ballot and he told The Gettysburg Times today he will accept the office.

He will serve until 1957. Five directors participated in the election. Richard A. Dreas was absent.

Discuss Tax Outlook

There was little other business transacted. The directors talked over the possible situation with regard to school taxes this year but it could not go beyond the discussion stage because the state has not yet announced either its reimbursement fraction or the percentage of reimbursement on the current building projects.

Dr. Lloyd C. Keefe, superintendent, pointed out that Gettysburg's share of the rentals on the two building projects will require an additional $33,000 in revenue this

Edward R. Hoffman Promoted At Altus

Edward R. Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Hoffman, Arendtsville, has been promoted to the rank of airman second class, Col. Dearl L. Beard, commander of the 10th, Oklahoma, Air Force Base, has announced.

Airman Hoffman, who was stationed at Walker Air Force Base, New Mexico, before his assignment to the strategic air command base at Altus, is a classification specialist with the 96th Field Maintenance Squadron at Altus.

TROOP GOING AHEAD WITHOUT SCOUTMASTER

Despite the fact they have been without a scoutmaster for several months, the members of Boy Scout Troop 88, Orttanna, are continuing to meet and advance in scouting.

The group, actually being led by Explorer Scout Robert Bondurant, since they lost their scoutmaster, held a court of awards Monday night at the Knouse Ponds plant in Orttanna, and seven of the 15 members of the troop were presented with badges signifying their completion of scouting advancement programs.

Charles S. Harris, local Scout field executive, made the presentations, then brought the members of the Orttanna unit to Gettysburg to join with a parent's night program being held by Troop 79 at St. James Lutheran Church.

Explorer Scout Bondurant received five merit badges — safety, canoeing, citizenship in the nation, conservation and citizenship in the home.

Awards Given

Hammond Geyer, Wendell Wetzel and Ronald Hess received second class badges. Ronald Shultz received the first class badge. Ronald Shultz was presented with the nature, for

Five Congressmen Are Shot By Quartet Of Fanatic Puerto Ricans In Chamber Of House; Michigan Solon Is Critical

Lolita Lebron, said to be the leader of the band of fanatic Puerto Ricans who attempted to assassinate several Congressmen in the House of Representatives, Monday, is shown as she is being hustled from the House to a nearby jail.

Congressman Davis, of Tennessee, one of the five congressmen wounded in the shooting in the House at Washington Monday afternoon, was the speaker at the Founders' Day dinner of the SAE fraternity of Gettysburg College at the Hotel Gettysburg three years ago.

Congressman James Van Zandt, who disarmed one of the Puerto Rican gunmen, has spoken here three times in the last year and a half. He was the speaker for the 1953 Shriner dinner, gave the Gettysburg High School commencement speech, the Memorial Day address in the National Cemetery and the Arendtsville National Bank dinner.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich) most seriously wounded among five congressmen shot down by fanatical gunmen in the House chamber, showed some gains early today. In jail a few blocks away, the leaders of the Puerto Rican pistol wielders insisted they were not sorry for the unprecedented outbreak in the Capitol yesterday afternoon.

Lolita Lebron, who claimed the ringleader's role, in a jail interview summed up "I do what I must for my country."

And Rafael Concel Miranda declared: "We don't talk about the little thing."

Both had more to say about Puerto Rican independence than about the wild shooting that disrupted proceedings in the House.

Along with two other Puerto Rican men—Andres P. Cordeiro and Irving Flores—they were held in jail of $100,000 each on charges of assault with intent to kill.

Face 15 Years

They face possible penalties of up to 15 years each—if all the wounded survive. The charge would become murder—punishable by death in the electric chair—if one should die as a result of their wild outbreak.

In addition to Bentley, the wounded are Reps. Kenneth A. Roberts (D-Ala) shot in the knee; Ben F. Jensen (R-Iowa), wounded in the left shoulder; Clifford Davis (D-Tenn), shot in the right leg, and George H. Fallon, (D-Md), hit in the hip.

Roberts also underwent surgery, but it was of exploratory nature. His physician reported that fears of nerve damage proved to be unfounded.

Bentley was struck in the upper right chest by a bullet which traveled through the lung, diaphragm, liver and stomach and came out his left side.

After a 1½-hour operation yesterday the first-term multi-millionaire representative from Michigan was given only a 50-50 chance for life.

"In Hands Of Lord"

"He is now in the hands of the Lord," said the surgeon, Dr. Charles Stanley White, after the operation.

At 6 a.m. EST today, however, Dr. Joseph R. Young, chief of staff at Casualty Hospital, said the 35-year-old congressman, while still in critical condition, had shown improvement, was cheerful and able to talk coherently.

A 7:45 a.m. report said Bentley had a "fairly restful" night; that temperature, pulse and respiration were at "a satisfactory level—although the pulse rate is higher than desirable."

A morning bulletin from Bethesda, Md. Naval Hospital said Jensen and Davis spent a comfortable night and were "feeling pretty well this morning." Both ate breakfast and "neither of them is on the list of seriously ill patients," the bulletin said.

It added that Jensen was the less comfortable of the two and said he might be operated on today for removal of the bullet from his shoulder.

Increased Security

Meanwhile increased security precautions, which already had been ordered at the capitol, appeared also at the White House 16 blocks up Pennsylvania Ave.

At the main gate leading to the presidential office, for example, four uniformed White House policemen and a Secret Service agent were stationed—two outside the gate and two inside. Ordinarily only two men are at the post and they stay in a little house just inside the grounds. A guardhouse at the Pennsylvania Ave. end of Executive Ave., which runs alongside the White House, was manned for the first time in months.

A scene of confusion without precedent in the House of Representatives occurred when the Puerto Rican fanatics suddenly produced heavy pistols and began shooting wildly from the visitors' gallery during yesterday's routine session.

Congressmen dived under desks or sped to the aid of fallen colleagues. Many of them thought the sharp reports were those of prankster's firecrackers—until splinters

Church Women Will Hear Rev. Galambos

The Rev. Gideon Galambos, pastor of the Presbyterian churches at Emmitsburg, Taneytown and Piney Creek, will be the speaker Wednesday evening at the March meeting of the Women's Christian Fellowship at the church at 8 p.m. This is the third in a series of programs and is titled "Christ Calls Us to Witness in Europe." Rev. Galambos is a Czechoslovakian.

Miss Marcia Hoy will conduct the devotions. There will be a business session, special music and refreshments during a social hour that will follow the program.

HORSES, RABBITS AND CHICKENS GET REPRIEVE FROM COUNCIL

The chickens can go home to roost in peace; the horses can neigh contentedly and the rabbits can well, they probably will anyway—for Gettysburg borough council Monday evening indicated that it loves all animals and wouldn't even think of such a thing as banning them from the borough.

Council expressed its "great admiration" for chickens, horses, rabbits, etc., to a council room crowded with horse and chicken partisans who were present to tell council it would be wrong for the borough to follow a Board of Health recommendation that the animals be forbidden residence in the borough.

Mrs. Blaine W. Hughes, Carlisle St., started the discussion by demanding to know if it was the stable at her property that had caused the board of health to consider asking council to ban the animals. Council said it had had no complaints whatsoever concerning stables.

Riding Club Speaks Up

Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner told council his stables were out of the borough, but that a "half dozen or more" local parents were considering buying ponies for their youngsters and if they had to keep the animals out of town the youngsters would never get the pets. The Gettysburg Riding Club is interested in promoting horsemanship as a character building recreation for children. Winebrenner said—"If an ordinance banning the keeping of horses in the borough goes through, lots of youngsters will never know the thrill of owning a pony."

A half dozen or more other members of the Gettysburg Riding Club expressed their agreement with Winebrenner.

Mrs. Anna Dracha, secretary of council, read two letters with which a number of chicken owners, present.

Two Helicopters Crash 100 Feet Off Ground; Six Killed

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Six Navy men died today in the flaming crash of two helicopters a mile from downtown Key West.

The helicopters collided 100 feet off the ground seconds after taking off on a training exercise.

Navy officials said they were flying in formation and as they turned to cross Fleming Key about a mile from the seaplane base, one helicopter slid into the other.

Both plunged to the bleak coral key and burst into flames.

Each helicopter carried three men, a pilot, co-pilot and crewman. Their names were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

The six men were members of Helicopter Anti-Submarine Squadron No. 1, formed two years ago, and the Navy said this was the first patrol accident here.

The planes were made by Sikorsky and known as the HO4S type. They are sometimes used by Marines to carry troops but were converted here for anti-submarine use.

The Navy said the helicopters took off at 8:33 a.m. (EST) and collided at 8:34 a.m.

The wreckage was a mass of flames by the time rescue workers reached the scene.

The Navy said each helicopter carried about 200 gallons of high-octane gasoline.

The last major plane accident in this area occurred April 23, 1951, when a Cuban DC4 and a Navy plane collided, killing 43 persons.

PROFESSOR TO VISIT GERMANY

Dr. William K. Sundermeyer, head of the German department at Gettysburg College, is one of 10 university and college professors selected by the German government to spend a month in Germany to study the reconstruction of German education. Dr. Sundermeyer will leave March 15 for Germany and will remain there until April 13.

Dr. Sundermeyer's visit to the Federal Republic of Germany and to West Berlin is part of the American exchange program begun last year when 80 leading personalities in American public, political and cultural life were invited to be guests of the German government.

The study tour is intended to enable the guests to see conditions in the new Germany for themselves, with an opportunity for each to acquaint himself with conditions in the Federal Republic in general as well as in each one's special field of interest.

From among a number of nominations by American and German quarters, Dr. Sundermeyer has been chosen as a participant in the group, "Professors of Germanic Studies." Dr. Sundermeyer, who received his Ph.D. from the University of Gettysburg, has been teaching at Gettysburg since 1940.

SOCIAL TONIGHT AT TRINITY; TO OBSERVE LENT

The Lenten season will be formally opened Wednesday evening at Trinity Evangelical Reformed Church with a special service marking Ash Wednesday. Communion will be celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Howard Schley Fox, at 7:30 p.m. The Senior Church Choir will be in charge of the musical portions of the service.

The Adult Catechetical Class will meet before this service at 6:30 p.m. for instruction for reception into church membership on Good Friday. At 8:30 p.m., a group of personal workers will meet for discussion and assignment of their work during the Lenten season. These people will visit members.

Lenten vespers will be held on the succeeding Wednesday evenings during the season. Dr. Fox will use for his instruction this year the general theme of "The Evangelical and Reformed Church." The following subjects will be discussed: "The Story of Our Denomination," "Trinity Church—Past and Present," "Our Church's Worship" and "The Sacraments."

The themes for Sunday evenings will be "Caring About Wrong Things," "Expecting Wrong Things," "Emphasizing Wrong Things," and "Betting on Wrong Things." The three choirs will give a Lenten musical on March 28. The catechetical class will present a play on Palm Sunday.

The annual mid-winter sports carnival-social for the entire congregation will be held this evening in the parish hall at 7:30 o'clock. The program will consist of instrumental numbers rendered by William Swisher, Bonnie Ziegler, Donna Fissel, Henry Fox, Barkley Collins, Cecelia Yoder and Louise Collins. Two motion pictures will be shown and contest and folk games will be played. Zwingli Circle will provide the refreshments consisting of fasnachts and coffee.

COUNCIL ADOPTS '54 BUDGET PLAN AT NEW OXFORD

New Oxford Borough Council adopted a $17,406.11 budget Monday evening at its meeting held in the administrative office of the Community Fire Co. building, and set the 1954 tax rate at 15 mills.

Expenditures for the year, as listed by the budget, includes: General government, $1,373; protection of persons and property, $3,566; health and sanitation, $1,200; highways, $6,925; library, $300; recreation, $550; unpaid bills of prior years, $3,252.11; interest, $240.

Income was listed as: Current taxes, $9,970.15; taxes of prior years, $558.45; miscellaneous revenue resources, $5,417.27; transfer from water fund, $2,065; loan, $1,400. Total $17,410.87.

Tax Collector H. B. Millar presented his list of exonerations which was approved.

Approve Stop Signs

Stop signs were approved for the intersections of S. Bolton and W. High Sts. and for N. Peters and Berlin Sts. Safety lines were authorized for "crucial crossings." Office supplies were approved for the police officer and the matter of securing regulation clothing for the town police officer was placed in the hands of the property committee. Bills totaling $1,023.37 were authorized to be paid.

In the absence of President Fred G. Klunk, Vice President H. S. Griffin called the meeting to order. Others present included Councilmen A. W. Rohrbaugh, John P. Smith, R. W. Wolfe, Cletus J. Billman and Paul H. Harbaugh. Klunk arrived after the meeting was started. Also present were Burgess Guy A. Staub, Officer Walter E. BeMiller, Secretary C. P. Kefer, and Tax Collector H. B. Millar.

52 COUNTIANS FINISH COURSE FOR C-D POLICE

Fifty-two county men Monday evening were presented with certificates for completing a course of training as auxiliary police.

Burgess William G. Weaver, presenting the men with the certificates at the last of the eight weeks of instruction given at the fire engine house here by Chief of Police Jack Bartlett, said: "As Civil Defense director for the county I feel much safer, for now I know we have an auxiliary police set-up just as we have a fire set-up for Civil Defense. You are trained and ready for use if needed. And I hope that you will never be needed. This Civil Defense training is different from others. Any other instruction you have undertaken has been for the specific purpose of making use of that training. We hope that we will never have to use the training we receive."

"But you are trained and ready for disaster work. And that training pays off. You will be called not only for duty in connection with possible enemy attack, but Civil Defense is set up to meet any emergency. An example was given yesterday in Philadelphia, where Civil Defense trained auxiliary police were called into action in connection with an explosion in a building there."

Commended By Chief
Chief of Police Bartlett commended the group on "the manner in which you went about receiving your instruction. You were serious, interested, and will make good auxiliary police officers."

The certificates presented the men were signed by Chief Bartlett as teacher; Harold W. Pierce, advisor and Cyrus S. Holt, principal of the state's Public Service Institute.

Those receiving the certificates were: Clarence H. Cluck, Charles O. Rosensteel, John D. Lawver, Charles S. Lupp, Dr. Frank T. Watson, Robert H. Shriver, Isaiah P. Stotler, Lavere C. Hamme and Charles W. Culp Jr., all of Gettysburg; Samuel E. Green, R. A. Shindler, Paul L. Plank Jr., Calvin D. Manahan, Jesse T. Hoffman, Greenmount; Glenn E. Crouse, Bernard F. Flickinger, Glenn L. Upper Communities

Telephone Mrs. Richard Raffensperger, Biglerville 8

J. O. Dutt, agriculture extension specialist from Penn State University, spoke to members of the Biglerville Garden Club and their guests Monday evening in the Biglerville Community hall on "Vegetable Gardening" and illustrated his talk with slides.

He stated that it is important for both commercial vegetable growers and home gardeners to give careful attention to the quality of the seed they use. Good seed is free from dirt, weed seed, insects and true to name or variety type. Good seed is the cheapest seed in the end. Gardens should have good drainage and receive plenty of sunlight. Mr. Dutt insisted that dry leaves or saw dust plus nitrogen does wonders to enrich soil. Saw dust and straw or hay make a good mulch for gardens. Sowing rye grass or rye and wheat in soil helps to improve the organic material. An open discussion was held at the close of his illustrations.

Mr. Dutt was introduced to the group by Frank Zettle, Adams County agent of the Agriculture Extension Association, who had been introduced by Mrs. Robert Reiter. Mr. Zettle spoke briefly to the group concerning their work in the county and mentioned the purpose of the agriculture extension workers is to present the latest researches to the people in the county.

Mrs. A. L. Leinart, president of the club, announced that the garden members plan to hold a food and flower sale on May 15. A tour to the Sherwood Gardens is also being planned during May. All members interested in taking this trip are asked to contact Mrs. John Lawver for reservations.

Weddings

Hartlaub—Collins
Miss Mary Ellen Collins, Crouse Park, Littlestown, daughter of Joseph Collins, Elizabethtown, and the late Marie Yingling Collins, and Jack Hartlaub, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hartlaub, Gettysburg, were united in marriage on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. in St. Aloysius Catholic Church, Littlestown. The pastor, the Rev. Fr. Edward J. Shanahan, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families and a few friends of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klein, Hampstead, Md., cousins of the bride, attended the couple. Miss Anna C. Weaver, church organist, played the wedding marches of Carl Rossini.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white ballerina length taffeta gown fashioned with a strapless bodice over which she wore a short sleeved bolero jacket of taffeta. The full skirt was of lace and net. Her headpiece was an arrangement of net and white rosebuds. She carried a colonial bouquet of sweetheart roses and white carnations.

Mrs. Klein wore an apricot ballerina length gown with a velvet bodice and jacket and the skirt was net. She wore a matching bouquet of talisman rosebuds and carnations.

A wedding reception with approximately 75 guests in attendance was held following the ceremony, from 2 to 5 p.m., at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Collins, Crouse Park, Littlestown, with whom she resided. A three tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, formed the centerpiece of the refreshment table.

The couple left on a brief wedding trip of unannounced destination. Mrs. Hartlaub is employed by Sylvia Garments, Inc., Littlestown. Mr. Hartlaub is employed by the Carroll Rubber Company, Littlestown.

Myers—Boyle
Miss Patricia Ann Boyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Boyle, Hanover, was married Saturday at 3 p.m. in St. Joseph's Catholic Church to Marlin I. Myers Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Myers, Abbotstown R. 1. Officiating was the Rev. Charles E. Park, rector of the church. Miss Rose Noel, Mt. Rock, was the maid of honor. Serving as best man was Jerry Elmer, McSherrystown, cousin of the bride. About 35 friends and relatives were present at a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Becker, Abbotstown R. 1, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, after the ceremony. The newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Philadelphia.

Want Livengood To Oppose Wood

HARRISBURG (P)—A group of Republicans made plans today to ask William S. Livengood Jr., secretary of internal affairs, to run for the GOP nomination for governor against organization-backed Lt.-Gov. Lloyd H. Wood.

John E. Martz, Northumberland County treasurer, spokesman for the independent group, said he would try to get in touch with Livengood on the proposal by telephone or telegraph. Livengood is vacationing in Florida.

Livengood, who has served four terms in the state elective office, was dropped by Republican state makers. He filed yesterday for the GOP nomination for a fifth term, opposing Mrs. Gaynelle Dixon, Butler, the slated candidate.

Martz said that U. S. Sen. James H. Duff was his group's first choice to oppose Wood but that they turned to Livengood when they failed to get a reply from Duff asking him to run. At the time Wood was endorsed by party leaders Duff said that Wood's candidacy was agreeable to him.

PROBE THREAT TO COUNCILMAN

PHILADELPHIA (P)—The FBI is investigating the origin of letters threatening the lives of City Councilman Samuel Rose and his family.

Rose signalled the defeat of attempts to amend the city charter last week when he announced his intention to vote against an amendment resolution.

The councilman's vote left pro-amendment forces one shy of the necessary two-thirds, or 12, votes needed to pass an amendment resolution through the 17-member council. The actual vote was 10-7, with another last-minute switch against the proposals by John W. Lord Jr.

Since then, police said, Rose has received a number of letters threatening to "put you in concrete" and warning of harm to his family as well.

The letters were turned over to the FBI by city police. Philadelphia Police Commissioner Thomas J. Gibbons also has assigned guards for Rose and his family.

The amendments proposed easing the ban against political activity by municipal employees and shifting certain powers from the mayor's office to the council.

URGE TEL-AVIV REBUILDING

TEL-AVIV (P)—Two thirds of Tel-Aviv should be rebuilt according to Aharon Horwitz, an American town planner, who after a two year's study of the problem has submitted his proposals to the Municipality here. The rapidly growing 43-year old city which contains today — together with neighboring Jaffa — 350,000 inhabitants, needs a thinning out of its residential areas, wider streets and more recreation grounds, Mr. Horwitz declared. He asserted that his plan could be executed within 20 years after which Tel-Aviv - Jaffa might well provide housing for 500,000.

The new owner took possession at once. The sale included stock, fixtures, tools and all other equipment of the store and business, and the adjoining home occupied by the Hufnagels.

Employees of the establishment will be retained by the new owner, Mr. and Mrs. Hufnagel will remain in Brushtown until the latter part of this month when they will have public sale of their personal possessions and then move to Tucson, Ariz.

Ohio, a state of the United States since 1803, was officially admitted to the union in 1953 when Congress corrected a technical omission in the original legislation.

PASTORS PLAN UNION SERVICE ON GOOD FRIDAY

Members of the Littlestown Ministerium made plans for the annual community Good Friday service, at their bi-monthly meeting held on Monday morning in Redeemer's Reformed Church. On Good Friday, April 16, three-hour devotions from 12 o'clock noon to 3 p.m. will be held in the Centenary Methodist Church. The theme of the devotions will be "The Seven Words From The Cross" and the public is invited to attend the entire worship or any portion of the devotions.

The three-hour service will be divided into seven parts and the following ministers will be in charge: Part One, the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, pastor of Redeemer's Reformed Church; Part Two, the Rev. Harvey B. Simons, pastor of the host church; Part Three, the Rev. Arthur E. Leeming, superintendent of the Hoffman Orphanage, Littlestown R. 2; Part Four, the Rev. Dr. Frederick R. Seibel, pastor of St. Mary's Lutheran Church, Silver Run; Part Five, the Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor of Christ Reformed Church; Part Six, the Rev. Oscar E. Peeman, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, Two Taverns, and Part Seven, the Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church. Special music will be conducted by St. Paul's, St. John's and Redeemer's Churches.

The Monday meeting opened with a prayer by the Rev. Mr. Karns, president of the Ministerium, who presided. It was decided that the annual pulpit exchange on the second Sunday after Easter will be omitted this year.

Announcement was made that the Rev. Mr. Simons will present the sermon at the baccalaureate service in the Littlestown High School, in May. The session closed with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Reynolds. The next Ministerium meeting was scheduled for Monday, May 3, at St. Paul's Church. Those present at the meeting Monday were the Revs. Karns, Koons, Simons and Reynolds.

Plan CE Convention
The planning committee for the spring convention of the Adams County Council of Christian Education Association met on Sunday afternoon at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. The date for the convention was set for June 20, to be held in St. Paul's Church, Littlestown. Committees for the convention program arranging were named and will be announced later. Samuel J. Snyder, Littlestown R. D., president of the Third District Sunday School Association, presided and was assisted in the planning on Sunday, by Alonzo M. LaVanture, York Springs R. 1, president of the County Council; R. R. Starnes, Bendersville, third vice president; Elmer Miller, Biglerville; Vern Forsberg, Gardners R. D., second vice president; the Rev. David S. Kammerer, Stanley M. Staub, Glenn C. Bowers and Grant Applier, Littlestown.

The Junior Class and the Senior High Chorus of the Littlestown High School have begun rehearsals for the annual operetta, "The Count and The Coed," to be presented on Friday, April 2, in the high school auditorium. The presentation is under the direction of Mrs. Joan C. Wilt and Miss Leora L. Heid, of the faculty.

Classes To Meet
The Youth and Willing Workers Sunday School classes of St. Mary's Reformed Church, Silver Run, will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church social hall. The project of the evening will be to repair choir gowns and members are asked to take sewing equipment. A worship period will precede the work.

New Oxford Man In Hanover Crash

A two-car crash in the 600-block of Carlisle St., Hanover, at 4:30 p.m. Saturday resulted in estimated damage of $950. No one was injured.

Hanover police reported the automobiles were driven by Kermit J. Smith, Lincolnway West, New Oxford, and Samuel L. Krug, Hanover.

Police estimated damage to the Smith auto at $400 and at $550 to Krug's.

Krug was charged with driving an automobile while his operator's license was suspended in an information filed by police with Justice of the Peace George A. Lippy, Hanover.

and a recreation session, including group games and refreshments will follow.

Ash Wednesday devotions will be held in St. Paul's Lutheran Church Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church lecture room. Arthur E. Bair Sr., lay-member of the congregation, will conduct the service in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. David S. Kammerer. The March meeting of the council will follow the Lenten service, at 8:30 p.m. at the church.

Union Service Held

The Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, pastor of Redeemer's Reformed Church, delivered a sermon based on I and II Peter at the union vesper service on Sunday evening in Christ Reformed Church. The Rev. Mr. Reynolds said that "I Peter is regarded as an epistle of hope in which the writer tells that the future is in the hands of God. The epistle concerns itself with practical advice. II Peter lays emphasis on the need for patience and is often called the epistle of warning, and is therefore a warning to Christians not to compromise their religion with other religions and doctrines." In closing the Rev. Mr. Reynolds stated that I and II Peter were used extensively by early church writers, and many hymns were inspired by portions of these books.

The service was in charge of the Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor of the host church, who gave the invocation, read the Scripture, made the announcements and introductions. Special music included an anthem by the choir, accompanied by Fred A. Warner, church organist. The Rev. Mr. Reynolds offered prayer and pronounced the benediction at the close of the service.

The vesper service next Sunday at 7:30 p.m. will be held in the Centenary Methodist Church in charge of the pastor, the Rev. Harvey B. Simons. The Rev. Mr. Koons will deliver the sermon on the Book of John. There will be vocal selections by the boys' quartet from the local high school, composed of Ronald Strevig, Terry Brown, Dean Sell and William Simons, accompanied by Marilyn Spangler.

To Show Film
Members of the Senior Choir of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will meet for rehearsal on Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Harvey B. Simons, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church, has announced that the film "The Hidden Heart" will be shown in the church on Monday, March 8, at 7:30 p.m., and the congregation is invited to attend. The film will precede the fourth quarterly conference to be held in charge of the

EMBEZZLER IS ARRESTED

LOS ANGELES (P)—The FBI last night announced the arrest of Ted Edmund Kaeding, 27, alias Anthony (Tony) Jardeen, accused of embezzling $15,000 from a Pennsylvania finance company.

Federal agents said Kaeding was apprehended as a result of the alertness of a citizen who had seen an identification order issued by the FBI. The citizen was not identified nor were the circumstances disclosed in the FBI announcement.

Kaeding is the former manager of the Ritter Finance Co., Willow Grove, Pa., agents said. The embezzlement took place last July, and in August a complaint was filed against Kaeding in Philadelphia, charging him with violating the interstate transportation of stolen property statute.

Where Kaeding had been living here was not given in the FBI announcement. He will be arraigned today before U. S. Commissioner Howard V. Calverley.

Start Daily Masses Wednesday Morning

Beginning with Ash Wednesday, the daily mass on school days at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, New Oxford, will be at 8 a.m. during Lent, and will be attended by the parochial school pupils in a body. During mass, the children will lead the recitation of the Rosary, the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and a prayer to St. Joseph to whom the month of March is dedicated. Many parishioners are also expected to attend daily mass during the Lenten period.

Another Lenten observance will be the Stations of the Cross on Fridays, one service in the afternoon at 2:45, attended by the school children in a body, and another service at 7:30 p.m.

First Friday for March will be marked this week at 7:30 a.m. School children will be present in a group to receive Holy Communion. Persons who cannot attend the mass may come to the church at 6 a.m. for Holy Communion on this day. In preparation, there will be the hearing of confessions Thursday from 3:30 to 5 p.m. and from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

Ash Wednesday will have evening devotions with the Litany of the Saints at 7:30 o'clock followed by the ancient rite of distribution of ashes. The usual First Saturday observance in honor of Our Lady of Fatima is scheduled for the 8 o'clock mass Saturday morning, followed by the private recitation of the Rosary by those present.

Vt. Bank Gives $1.06 For $1 Penny Deposit

RUTLAND, Vt. (P)—The saying goes that a penny saved is a penny earned but at the Killington Bank a dollar's worth of pennies will get you $1.06. If you wrap and deposit them you'll get $1.06.

When the bank needs pennies it purchases them in Boston and has to pay shipping charges. It costs less to pay the depositors a bonus and the bank adds new accounts at the same time.

From 1850 to 1950 the population of the United States multiplied by about six, from about 23 million to about 151 million.

SEEK FUNDS TO DEEPEN RIVER

WASHINGTON (P)—Congress again has been urged by spokesmen for the Philadelphia port area to provide money to restore the Delaware River channel to a depth of 40 feet from Philadelphia to the sea.

The Philadelphia port area includes the ports of Camden, N. J., Chester, Pa., and Wilmington, Del. Mayor Joseph S. Clark Jr. of Philadelphia, Harry G. Schad of the joint Executive Committee for the Improvement and Development of the Philadelphia port area, which includes 16 organizations, and others asked the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Army Civil Functions yesterday to increase from $1,985,000 to $2,400,000 the money for dredging and maintaining the Delaware channel in the year starting July 1.

Two weeks ago the same request was made to the comparable House Subcommittee on Appropriations. The House bill has not yet been sent to the House floor.

The witnesses told the senators that the authorized 40-foot channel has become so silted as a result of reduced dredging funds since 1941 that the channel is places is now as shallow as 31 feet, creating hazards to life and property and making it virtually a nightmare for larger vessels to make their way up and down the river.

Accepted New Position: Harry
A. Snyder, for a number of years connected with the First National Bank in this place, has resigned his position with said bank and accepted a position in the Citizens
Bank. Mr. Snyder will be Assistant Treas. of the Trust Company after April 1st when the Citizens' Bank will be merged into a Trust Company. Hon. R. William Bream will be the Treasurer.

Gettysburg Victorious: A "snappy" game of basketball was played in the college gymnasium
Friday evening, the contesting teams being Gettysburg and Franklin and Marshall. Although the visitors played a good game they were not in it with our boys, who won the victory by the score of 42 to 7.

Local Miscellany: Eggs dropped to 18 cts. per dozen last Friday, and as a consequence some of our dealers lost considerable money.

ball pitcher, has again signed with the Philadelphia Athletics, his signature having been attached to the contract this week.

Frank Adams' new production of "Uncle Her" drew a fair crowd to Xavier Hall Monday evening, notwithstanding the inclement weather. The comedy was all that it was advertised to be, and the audience was greatly delighted.
The actors performed their parts well and the musical specialties were greatly enjoyed.

Rev. Clutz To Be Installed: Rev.
Dr. J. A. Clutz will be installed pastor of St. James Lutheran church next Sunday morning. Rev.
A. Stewart Hartman, D. D., of Baltimore, will deliver the sermon to the pastor, and Rev. A.
R. Steck, the former pastor, will preach to the congregation. Dr.
Steck will also fill the pulpit in the evening.

Land Becoming Valuable: Peter

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

FORGIVING AND FORGETTING

No one can be one's happiest self who harbors an unkind thought or resentment against anyone.
Jean Paul Richter once said: "The heart that forgives an injury is like the perforated shell of a mussel, which closes its wound with a pearl."

There is a world of meaning to that familiar phrase: "To err is human, to forgive is divine." How very many of us have experienced the thrill of being forgiven for some act for which we were ashamed. Even Christ upon the cross exclaimed: "Father, forgive them (His crucifiers) for they know not what they do."

For so long as you refuse to forgive, you will keep remembering, and that is bad, for it is so cumulative. But with forgiveness its remembering soon becomes a part of the long past. Forgive and forget. And start living again!

We are never our true selves for so long as we harbor hatred toward anyone, or hold resentment against him or her. None of us ever arrives at the time when we make no mistakes or conduct ourselves faultlessly.
Quarrels, or bitterness, toward another should be of short duration. There should be forgiveness on both sides—and then a forgetting.

It is a fact that often a quarrel clears the atmosphere, the same as a storm does—but none of us likes storms of long duration.
Prompt forgiveness is the salt of this earth! Their friendliness is enriched over the years.

There came to me the story of two brothers who had quarreled on a trip returning from Europe. One of them wrote to me and said that his brother who had refused to "make up," read these words, and the brother who said
"I love my brother," told me to write something that would rec-oncile them. I did—and the brothers forgave and forgot! It can always be so easy.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Inward Security."

RULE FOR DIET
A diet is a simple thing.
One rule there is to follow:
What you detest you may digest.
What like you mustn't swallow.

Forget the doctor's printed list.
'Tis needless to run through it.
Your teeth may chew what's vile to you;
If pleasant, then eschew it.

Be not concerned with calories
Or carbohydrates curious;
What's bad is good, it's understood
What's good is most injurious.

Don't search his list for tasty food
Because you'll never strike it.
Eat all you wish of some sour dish,
But shun it if you like it.

more details about government
"security risk" firings on which he released a long-sought breakdown last night.

He sent to Congress a report stating that out of 1,782 security separations by the Eisenhower administration between May 28 and Dec. 31 of last year, 355 involved persons with subversive information in their files.

He was called to testify today at a public session of the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee. Its Democratic members have demanded an investigation of what they contend is misleading information put out by some Republicans about the employees involved.
President Eisenhower has said

Explain Discrepancy
his administration got rid of 2,200 security risks in its first year in office.

Young said yesterday his 1,782
total did not include 442 separations in the Defense Department, on which details would be submitted later. That apparently accounted for the discrepancy between his figures and the President's.

The report furnished yesterday listed 2,008 cases outside the Defense Department, but some persons fell into more than one category, as for instance a loose talker also found to be a heavy drinker.
Only 1,782 individuals were involved.

Breakdown Given
The breakdown on the 2,008 separations was: information of a subversive nature, 355; sex pervers, 190; felonies or misdemeanors, 504;
other unspecified causes, 959.

The separations included 983 persons fired and 1,241 who resigned, including the 211 dismissals and 231 resignations in the Defense Department. The report did not indicate whether some of these employees got jobs in other agencies.

The Interior Department led the list with 72 "subversive information" cases, followed by the Veterans Administration with 45. State Department 43 and Justice Department 41. One was listed for the White House.

Young's figures did not include the total number of employees working in the agencies covered.

CANCELLATION OF TAX CUTS IS EXPECTED

By CHARLES F. BARRETT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Key Republican members predicted the House Ways and Means Committee would act today to cancel two billion dollars in scheduled corporation income tax cuts.

They said this recommendation would be added, in a surprise maneuver, to an 800-page bill generally overhauling the entire tax structure.

The top corporation income tax rate, now 52 per cent, is scheduled to drop automatically to 47 per cent April 1. President Eisenhower has urged a one-year extension of the present rate to help reduce the federal deficit.

Opposition Slips

At one time the President's proposal had stirred strong opposition, including promises of a fight by Rep. Daniel A. Reed (R-N.Y.), Ways and Means chairman. Also, there was widespread talk of a compromise at a 50 per cent corporation income tax rate.

Committee members said much of the opposition has melted, however, because of other tax cuts in effect or planned this year, notably business benefits provided in the general tax revision measure. If approved by the House and Senate, it would reduce revenues from individuals and business by about $1,300,000,000 the first year and more later, chiefly through more liberal deductions.

Previously, Republican committee members had ruled out any effort to deal with major tax rates in the revision bill. The evident decision to shift tactics came at a private caucus late yesterday after a series of meetings involving Re-

13 INJURED IN DAMASCUS RIOT

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Revolutionary Syria's army chief of staff warned against further violence and demonstrations Monday as the capital prepared to greet the nation's new chief of state,
Hachem Bey el Attassi.

Though rival factions of army rebels united behind Attassi and ex-dictator Adib Shisheky's Cabinet agreed to step out, new rioting broke out in Damascus Sunday night and 13 persons were reported wounded, some seriously.

Troops broke out the demonstrations by firing on the crowds and using tear gas. The capital for the second night was under a curfew.

Damascus was calm again Monday.

Bullets Meet Muhlenberg Here Tonight Seeking To Avenge Previous Setback

A revenge-bent Gettysburg College basketball team will take the floor here this evening against the Mules of Muhlenberg in what looms to be a close game all the way.

Muhlenberg dropped the Bullets 77-70 on February 6 in its new gymnasium at Allentown and come here confident of making a clean sweep over the Bream-men.

Last year the Mules won a pair from the Bullets and from that squad Coach Benny Borgmann has seven lettermen, enabling him to put an all-veteran team on the floor.

Foremost among the returnees is Larry Friedman who averaged 17.3 points per game last season and who poured in 27 points against Gettysburg at Allentown. Another outstanding mule performer is Frank Cutko, a letterman. He tabbed 14 in the previous engagement.

Additional veterans from last year include Vince Osadchy, Dick Rudolph, Jerry Neville, John Noecker and Gerald Faller.

Muhlenberg has been an in-and-out performer during the current campaign, coming up with brilliant performances at times with just the opposite taking place upon other occasions. A good performance to-night will mean plenty of trouble for the Bullets.

Fresh Game At 6:45
Coach Bream, who has been encountering trouble in finding a regular starter to replace the injured Johnny Haebe, will probably open with Jack Keller, Joe Lang and Bill Snyder with the other two posts manned by Tom Lunn, Dick Hockenbury, Joe Bierly or Eddie Perren.

The Bullets now sport a 12-7 record with three games remaining. Johnny Yovissin's freshmen, 8-4 for the campaign, meet Stevens Trade in the preliminary game at 6:45. The frosh squeezed past the Tradesmen 75-74 at Lancaster on February 4.

BUBBLERS MEET GREENCASTLE 5 ON GHS FLOOR
The Gettysburg High School gymnasium will be the site of another District 3 PIAA basketball playoff game Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock when Bolling Springs clashes with Greencastle in a Class B contest.

Bolling Springs, regular season and playoff champion of the Adams County League, has been rated as a favorite on the basis of its brilliant 26-2 season.

Greencastle is the standard-bearer of the Franklin County circuit.

In another Class B game Wednesday evening Annville meets Columbia at Lancaster High School.

A second Class B contest will be staged Saturday evening on the local high school floor when Waynesboro of the South Penn League meets Spring Grove.

Waynesboro was permitted to enter the Class B playoffs at a meeting of District 3 officials last week.

BOLLING EAGER FOR SOPH YEAR

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Milt Bolling, 23-year old shortstop for the Boston Red Sox, is looking forward eagerly to his second year in the majors. He's not worried about any sophomore jinx, either.

"I didn't have a good enough season to worry about the jinx. I'm just hoping I can improve some in my hitting this year," said the boy from Mobile.

Appearing in 109 games for the Red Sox in 1953, Bolling batted .300, one triple and five homers.

The handsome Bolling—he was selected by Boston scribes as the best looking member of the club—is happy he received his big chance last season under Boudreau.

"I had no idea I would make it," he said with a grin. "I thought they would send me to Louisville. This year I guess I'm the only shortstop on the roster. But I'll give it my best again at Saratoga."

When asked who were the toughest pitchers he faced in the big time he mentioned the names of Allie Reynolds and Whitey Ford of the Yankees, and Virgil Trucks and Billie Pierce of the White Sox.

INEXPENSIVE CHAMPION

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Hi Lo's Forbes, named the top harness horse of 1953 by the turf writers, proved a real bargain. The black stallion cost owners Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wagner $300 at auction.

At Roosevelt Raceway on June 6, Hi Lo's Forbes ran the fastest mile ever registered by a harness horse over a half mile oval. His time was 1:58 3/5.

He topped 11 of his 17 starts and earned $52,625.

DELONE DRUBS HANOVER 61-51 IN BIG UPSET

The Delone Catholic High Squires pulled a stunning upset in their final basketball game of the season by downing the Hanover Nighthawks 61-51 on the victors' court before a packed house. This was also Hanover's last game of the season.

From the blowing of the opening whistle to the sounding of the final horn both teams played nip and tuck ball. In the initial frame Ruby Delone tossed in a push shot with Rife looping a foul but Bair came back to land another from the corner for Delone. Slevin hit on a jump as Jack Codori matched his shot and Chrismer added a free throw. Rife tossed in a jump followed by free throws by Study, Slevin and Wagaman of Hanover. Codori then netted a foul with Jude Smith looping a two-pointer under the basket. Slevin tossed in a jump while Leppo and Bair exchanged corner shots as the period ended with the Squires trailing 13-12.

Coach John McMahon's cagers pulled ahead in the second stanza as the Nighthawks were held to two points up to the last three minutes of the frame. Codori banked in a push and hit on a lay-up while Chrismer hooped a jump and Jude Smith landed a corner shot. Wagaman landed a set from mid-court while Bair tossed in two straight corner shots. Rife hit on a push shot and fouls while Study added one free throw. J. Smith exchanged lay-ups with Slevin as Codori added a foul as the half ended with Delone in front 32-27.

Cling To Lead
Slevin and Rife knotted the count for Hanover early in the third period on lay-ups. Hanover went ahead on Study's jump shot, but J. Smith retaliated with a lay-up.

Wagaman matched fouls with Bair and J. Smith while Bair landed a lay-up and Smith contributed another foul and a lay-up. Leppo hit on a jump as Bair sank a foul. Rife and Bair exchanged push shots from the corner as the third period came to a close with Delone picking up another point to lead 39-33.

Both teams battled furiously in the best stanza but Delone never lost it lead. Chrismer took the top off and landed a goal. Greenholt hooped a foul while Chrismer tossed in a jump. Wagaman and Study netted sets for Hanover as Chrismer hooped another foul. Leppo and Chrismer matched jumps while Wagaman and Greenholt hit on the same. Rife, Smith, Bair and Greenholt contributed one-pointers from the foul line. Rife and Wagaman then hit on jumps with Chrismer matching both of them. Redding, Study, Rife and Chrismer again landed from the free throw line. In one last desperate spurge the Squires scored on jumps, lay-ups and fouls by Bair, J. Smith and Don Chrismer as the game ended.

Ruby Bair was high man in the game with a total of 19 points. Rife topped the losers' attack with 18. Playing for the last time for the Squires were Captain Ruben Bair, Don Chrismer, Jack Codori, Ken Cole, Phil Kale, Burnell Smith and Nobby Noel. The Squires finished with a 12-16 record.

Squire Jayvees Bow
After playing to a tied first quarter the Delone reserves lost to a powerful Hanover jayvee team, 63-53. Carroll Funk led the scoring attack for the Squires with 21 points while Bell and Blumenthal combined honors for the Nighthawks.

Jarmoluk, Weigle Signed By Eagles

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Veteran tackle Mike Jarmoluk and rookie end John Weigle have signed for the 1954 football season with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Professional Football League.

It will be the sixth season with the Eagles for Jarmoluk who joined the club in 1949 after two years with the Chicago Bears and one with the old Boston Yanks.

Weigle, 6-foot-2, 200 pounds, played for Georgia Tech and Oklahoma A. & M. He was a 1952 draft choice, but decided to finishing his schooling before joining the pro club.

KANSAS NEAR 3RD STRAIGHT LOOP CROWN

By RIP WATSON
NEW YORK (AP)—March doesn't always come in like a lion, but the Kansas basketball team seems to.

National Collegiate basketball champions in March 1952 and finalists for the same title last year, Kansas opened its March drive last night by trouncing Colorado 83-62 in the Big Seven Conference's clutch game of the year. All Phog Allen's boys need now is a victory over Missouri Saturday to clinch their third successive conference crown—and another trip to the NCAA Championships.

Kentucky, which regained first place in the Associated Press poll today, shared the spotlight with Kansas by walloping Alabama 66-43 to complete its schedule with a 24-0 mark. The Wildcats, only undefeated team in the country, still haven't assured themselves of the Southeastern Conference crown however.

Duke Back In Form
They need more than a perfect record because Louisiana State also has a clean conference record after its 76-53 victory over Mississippi. The Bayou Tigers, who took over the No. 7 spot in the poll, still must beat Tulane March 6. If they win that one, as expected, they'll meet Kentucky for the conference crown—and NCAA bid—at Nashville March 9.

Duquesne, which also boasted a clean slate until a disastrous weekend, snapped out of its slump by trouncing St. Bonaventure's 67-55. That boosted the fourth-rated Dukes' record to 23-2.

Indiana, which edged Kansas 69-68 in the NCAA finals a year, will have to beat Illinois' red-hot club Saturday if it hopes to qualify for a second straight title. Indiana leads the Big Ten with an 11-2 record, but Illinois boosted its record to 10-3 by nipping Northwestern 84-82, its seventh straight conference win.

KENTUCKY BACK IN FIRST SPOT IN AP SURVEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Kentucky's all-winning basketball team regained its favorite spot today when the nation's sports writers and sportscasters named the Wildcats No. 1 team in the country.

Ousted from the top spot for the past two weeks by Duquesne, Kentucky rolled back with first-place votes from 59 of the 120 experts who cast ballots. On the usual basis of 10 points for first, nine for second and so forth, Kentucky totaled 964 points.

Kentucky, which headed the poll from the third week of the season through the ninth, completed its regular season last night by defeating Alabama 68-43 for a 24-0 mark.

Dukes Tumble
Duquesne, upset by Cincinnati Friday and again by Dayton Saturday, tumbled all the way to fourth place.

Indiana's defending National Collegiate basketball champions took over the second spot with 722 points and Western Kentucky also ranked ahead of Duquesne with 707. Both teams moved up one place in the rankings.

Duquesne, which received 934 points a week ago, fell to 570. The Dukes snapped out of their slump last night by thumping St. Bonaventure 67-55.

Shuffling At Bottom
Oklahoma A&M also suffered from an upset—by Wichita. It fell one place to sixth while Notre Dame's Irish moved up one spot to take No. 5.

The bottom of the standings also were considerably shuffled as Holy Cross, No. 7 a week ago, fell to 13th after a loss to Connecticut, and Duke, No. 10 last time, dropped one place.

Louisiana State, a 76-53 victor over Mississippi last night, joined the top 10 in seventh place. La Salle was right behind in eighth. George Washington fell one notch to ninth and Seattle dropped one to 10th.

L. V. CAGE TEAM SEEKS NAIA BID

ANNVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Lebanon Valley College's basketball team, making its second successive post season tournament bid, will try for a trip to the NAIA national finals on Thursday night.

The Flying Dutchmen's 14th straight victory last night, 81-64, over Millersville Teachers College pushed the tiny Lebanon County school into the District 30 (Pennsylvania) championship game.

LVC will play the winner of tonight's Gannon-Genève contest Thursday at Huntingdon for the right to represent the state in the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics Tourney at Kansas City next week.

Last year the Dutchmen played in the NCAA tourney and won once before losing at Raleigh, N. C.

Lebanon Valley almost doubled Millersville's scoring effort in the first quarter at Hershey last night to take a lead it never lost. Millersville won the State Teachers College championship and had 13 successive wins before losing Saturday.

Lou Sorrentino of Lebanon took scoring honors with 26 points. Both teams went into the game with 17-4 season records.

TENNIS

MIAMI, Fla.—Defending champion Gardner Mulloy of Miami, Fla., defeated Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., 6-2, 5-7, 6-4 in the final of the Miami Invitational Championships.

KINGSTON, Jamaica—Malcolm Fox, Baltimore veteran, upset Sweden's Sven Davidsson, U.S. indoor champion, 3-6, 6-2, 6-4 in the second round of the St. Andrews Club Tournament.

Temple Opens Grid Season Against B.C.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Temple University opens its 1954 football season Oct. 2 against Boston College in Temple Stadium.

Boston College is one of five new teams on the Owls' '54 schedule: Brandeis, Brown, Rutgers and Delaware are the others.

Following the BC game, Coach Al Kaval's team will play at Delaware, Oct. 9; host Bucknell, Oct. 16; then meet Brown, away, Oct. 23; Rutgers, away, Oct. 30; Brandeis, home, Nov. 6; Scranton, away, Nov. 13, and Boston University, home, Nov. 20.

The game with Brandeis will be the first meeting of the two schools. The others have appeared on past Temple schedules.

GREYHOUNDS TO RETURN TO SP GRID CIRCUIT

Shippensburg, which has withdrawn from South Penn football competition for two years, will tell the conference that it intends to return to full membership, according to Howard Hench, principal of the high school.

Hench said that Shippensburg had decided to "stay in" despite the fact that it had lost all its football games with league foes and did not win a game in basketball.

The announcement will be made at the league meeting Wednesday at 6:30 at the Allenberry. Also on the agenda is the election of officers and the selection of a site for the South Penn track and field meet, according to President Carl Graham, Mechanicsburg.

Cage Coach Problem
Francis McPherson, Shippensburg basketball coach, may not be back for another season, it was intimated by Richard VanSwoye, faculty manager of athletics. VanSwoye said McPherson is looking for another job and won't be back if he can secure another position.

"We're dissatisfied with the way things have been going and there is no prospect of improving," he added.

McPherson denied the report, saying "I'm satisfied with the job." The Greyhounds won but two of 21 basketball games during the season.

TEBBETTS HAS 10-YEAR-PLAN AS A MANAGER

CINCINNATI (AP)—George (Birdie) Tebbetts, new manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs, calmly looked over a few hundred baseball fans, officials and former stars here and stated:

"I am not here for a year, but to break the record for continuous service set by Bill McKechnie who managed Cincinnati from 1938 to 1946. I'm going to be a 10-year-man not only as a major league player but as manager, too."

Big words, and said confidently at a dinner given by the "Ball Players of Yesterday," an organization whose membership includes diamond stars of the past.

Warren C. Giles, president of the National League, and Gabe Paul, general manager of Cincinnati, heard Birdie say his piece.

Managers Move Fast
Managers have not been around very long at Crosley Field since McKechnie moved on. Those who have tried are Johnny Neun, 1947; Neun and William (Bucky) Walters, 1948; Walters, 1949; Luke Sewell, 1950, 1951 and part of 1952, and Rogers Hornsby, part of 1952 and part of 1953.

"There are some good ball players on this club," said Tebbetts, "and I am out to lift it into the first division of the National League."

"Some of those boys now on the roster are good pitchers. You can't establish how good they are unless you select four, possibly five, and work them in rotation. The four I hope to concentrate on are going to be given a good opportunity to show what they can do by being used regularly. The other fellows will just have to wait their chances to find out if they can win."

Tebbetts, a fine catcher in the American League for 11 years, was taking an indirect crack at Hornsby, who shifted his hurling staff many times through last season. Sometimes one of his so-called starting pitchers did not see mound duty for a week.

Broken Shoulder For Williams Puts Pennant Stock Of Boston Red Sox Into Slump; Out 6 Wks.

Associated Press Sports Writer
The opening of the 1954 American League season is still six weeks away but the pennant stock of the Boston Red Sox, faced with the loss of Ted Williams, has already slumped to almost microscopic proportions.

The 35-year-old outfielder suffered a fractured left shoulder in the first 10 minutes of spring training yesterday when he stumbled and fell while chasing a sinking liner off the bat of Hoot Evers.

There's no telling just how much of the upcoming campaign he'll miss, but examining physicians said, "He will not be able to lift his arm or swing a bat for six weeks."

Williams himself is more optimistic and predicts he will be in the opening day lineup against the Philadelphia Athletics April 13.

"I'm going to work that much harder to get in shape," he said.

The entire upper portion of his body was placed in a cast, but Jack Fadden, the club's trainer, said that he "will be able to run as soon as the pain leaves his shoulder."

Some observers had been giving the Sox an outside chance of winning the American League pennant after they acquired outfielder Jackie Jensen and pitcher Leo Kieley returned from the Army.

George Kell Signs
After Manager Lou Boudreau had accompanied Williams to the hospital, the Red Sox went through their opening drill under the direction of Coach Del Baker. Veteran third sacker George Kell and catcher Sammy White signed their contracts in time to take part in the practice.

At Lakeland, Fla., Manager Fred Hutchinson of the Detroit Tigers indicated that shortstop Yeuken Kuenn would be dropped at least to the No. 2 spot in the batting order. Kuenn cracked out 209 hits as a leadoff man in 1953 and Hutchinson figures "he should drive in more runs for a fellow with that many base hits."

A first-class battle for second base was shaping up in the camp of the Milwaukee Braves. Jack Dittmer, last year's regular, and Danny O'Connell, secured from Pittsburgh, are the competitors, and Manager Charley Grimm believes it may take a month before he decides.

In other spring training news, outfielder Ralph Kiner of the Chicago Cubs is seven pounds under his weight of last year and says he is looking forward to a fine season. Roy Campanella, Brooklyn's burly catcher, was bedded with a heavy cold in his back. Ray Jablonski again was tabbed by Manager Eddie Stankay as the regular St. Louis Cardinals' third baseman. . . . outfielder Willie Mays was discharged from the Army and is expected to join the New York Giants sometime today. . . . Manager Fred Haney sent the Pittsburgh club through a session of limbering-up exercises.

Pitcher Early Wynn of Cleveland, outfielder Jim Busby of Washington and infielder Granny Hamner of the Philadelphia Phillies all signed 1954 contracts.

British Athletes Given Pill Tests

LONDON (AP)—One hundred British athletes are swallowing two small brown pills a day. It's part of an experiment by a Harley Street physician who believes the tablets increase human endurance.

Prof. John Yudkin of London University came up with the discovery about a year and a half ago. His pep-up pills are mainly of beef liver.

"Results so far convince me that the tablets definitely improve stamina in the cases of some marathon runners, swimmers, racing cyclists and boxers," said the medic who once was a runner himself. "They also seem to prevent staleness."

Rigney Says Catcher Katt May Win Place With Giants

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—After 10 seasons with the New York Giants, managing their American Association farm team will be a new experience for me. It's something I've dreamed about for a long time and naturally I'm looking forward to my first year.

We have some real good prospects in the Giant organization. Rosy Ryan, Minneapolis general manager; Chick Genovese, now a Giant scout who managed the Millers most of last season, and Giant Coach Fred Fitzsimmons, who had the Millers at the end of 1953, all agree that the best prospect for the immediate future is Catcher Ray Katt.

Ryan, a former Giant pitcher who does a good job evaluating talent, is especially high on Katt. Rosy says, "Katt has been the best catcher in the American Association the last two years."

He's a workhorse of the Roy Campanella and Yogi Berra type and they say he can catch every day. In the association he played in 114 games after the Giants optioned him out and he hit .325, drove in 98 runs and drove out 28 homers.

Of course, Katt will be with the Giants this spring. On past performance he has the ability to win a catcher's berth on the ball club.

Good News For Housewives - - - Electrical Appliances Simplify Home Chores

Richard E. Dreas, Manager Of MECO, Declares More People Using Electric Water Heaters

"More and more people are heating water electrically because it provides more convenience and safety," Richard E. Dreas, manager of Gettysburg District of the Metropolitan Edison Company, said today in revealing that during the past year "more electric water heaters were installed in homes and farms in Adams County than any previous period in history."

Every working day of the past year saw 19 new water heaters installed throughout the MECO System, according to Dreas who says that in heating water as with many other household tasks, "people are finding that the electric way is the best way. It is economical as well as clean and safe."

"In switching to electric, Adams County residents are following a trend which is reaching landslide proportions in all parts of the nation. Nationally more than 1,000,000 electric water heaters have replaced other types each year since 1945 in a changeover almost unprecedented in the history of the appliance industry."

"Cost Is Small Factor" "In analyzing this mass change, market specialists have found that cost is only a small factor in determining buying habits and that today's housewife wants modern appliances—the kind which give her freedom to do more pleasant things, which are automatic, which look good in her home and which do a good job regardless of conditions."

"Electric water heaters rate high in all of these qualifications because they are enclosed with shining white porcelain on every side in such a way that they keep the heat inside and are always cool to the touch. This gives them additional superiority because it makes it possible to install an electric water heater in a closet, under the stairs or most any place out of the road since there is no flame or fumes. It also makes it possible to place it in a play room or utility room for there is no danger to children playing nearby."

"Of course it is automatic and never needs a touching hand once installed. To all of these advantages can be added MECO's low one cent special water-heating rate which makes it just as economical to heat water with electricity as with any other fuel."

"All major appliance dealers and plumbers in Gettysburg and Adams County have electric water heaters and will be glad to install them at a minimum of cost. They invite inspection and comparison."

Red Magazine Says Farms Lose Money

HONG KONG (AP)—A Chinese Communist agricultural magazine says 50 mechanized farms established by Red China are losing money through inefficient operation.

The magazine Peiping China Agricultural Fortnight asserts the farms, totaling 350,000 acres and employing 27,000 workers, have been drawing heavily on the national treasury.

Fire was almost universally believed to be an element during the Middle Ages, although studies disproving such theories had been made as early as the Fourth Century B. C.

M'CARTHY ROW REVIVES MOVE TO PLACE RULES ON COMMITTEES

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy's treatment of a general did more than get the Wisconsin Republican into a row with Robert T. Stevens, secretary of the Army. It helped revive an old question: Should Congress lay down mandatory rules for its committees— which now make their own as they see fit—guaranteeing witnesses who appear before them fair play and more rights than they have now?

Congress has battled that one around, in one shape or another, for more than 100 years while doing practically nothing about it. If the past is any criterion, it won't do much now.

Set Of Rules Offered Various committees, including McCarthy's, have rules for procedure and reasonable treatment of witnesses. Whether they're lived up to depends in each case on the committee members who made them.

Last year and early this year members of both houses suggested Congress as a whole tighten up on its committees.

Then, after the McCarthy-Stevens feud erupted a week ago, Sen. Morse (Ind-Rep) and Sen. Lehman (D-Lib-NY) offered a detailed set of rules they call a "code of fair committee procedure." In many ways they'd give a witness the basic rights he gets in court but doesn't have before a committee.

Rule Change Discussed Then the Republican family dispute between McCarthy and the Eisenhower administration got so much public attention it worried the Senate's Republican Policy Committee.

This group, which sets Republican Senate strategy, unanimously decided it was time to look into the possibility of changing the rules for investigating committees.

President Eisenhower was reported anxious to see a tightening up. Rep. Javits (R-NY) proposed a single committee of House and Senate members to do all Con-

RETAILER IS FINED $100 FOR TAX VIOLATION

HARRISBURG (AP)—The first conviction of a Pennsylvania retailer for violation of the state sales tax was recorded yesterday when a western Pennsylvania paid a fine of $100 and costs.

Joseph C. Snyder, director of the Sales Tax Bureau, said the person or firm failed to obtain and display a registration certificate and was prosecuted under the bureau's recently announced drive on violators.

He declined to identify the violator further than "a western Pennsylvania tax collector." Snyder maintained that "at the minute I don't think it would be wise to give out names."

The law passed by the 1953 General Assembly placed a one per cent tax effective Sept. 1 on retail sales excluding food, clothing and other items.

Snyder explained that up to now his bureau has been lenient with retailers who have been delinquent in filing their returns and tax collections because many were not acquainted with requirements of the new law. "Now, however," he said, "prosecutions will be instituted."

Make Checkup

The tax division announced a comprehensive checkup on the returns of 190,000 registered retailers because revenue receipts were "below expectations." Some 160 field auditors of the division will make the check.

"A retailer who fails to file a return or pay tax due to the state is guilty of a misdemeanor which carries a fine of $1,000 or a one-year jail sentence or both," Snyder said. "Retail sellers handling tangible personal property and failing to obtain and display a certificate of registration can be fined $100 and jailed 30 days for failure to pay."

Snyder said he thought it would be bad policy to give out the names of persons or firms convicted of violations of the law.

13 LOSE LIVES IN PARALYZING MIDWEST STORM

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A March cold wave knifed into the Great Plains today as the Ohio River Valley states dug out from a paralyzing snowstorm that took at least 13 lives.

The arctic air, flowing down from northern Alberta, sent the mercury skidding to subzero levels in the Northern Plains and along the eastern slopes of the Rockies. The entire Midwest was expected to feel the sting.

Many schools still were closed and highway travel was impeded today after a heavy snowstorm that piled a deep blanket over northern Ohio and eastern Kentucky and eastern Tennessee.

Cleveland had 15 inches of snow on the ground and London, Ky., reported 17 1/2 inches. Up to a foot fell in mountainous upper east Tennessee.

The telephone company reported 344 long-distance circuits were out east of Knoxville, Tenn., with little prospect repairs could be made before tomorrow. One third of the city of Bristol, Tenn., was reported without electricity after a foot of snow fell.

The soggy, clinging snow snapped power and telephone lines in the tree-state area, disrupted air travel and snarled bus service. Huge drifts blocked highways and hundreds of schools remained closed.

Moves Into Canada The storm center moved northward into Canada and only snow flurries continued today.

Some snow accompanied the southward sweep of cold into Wyoming and Colorado but brought little prospect for relief in the southeastern Colorado dust belt. Farmers said strong winds would nullify the effects of the precipitation.

Denver and Cody, Wyo., reported 4 inches of snow but Lamar in the heart of the Colorado dust belt had only a trace.

The temperature dipped to 4 degrees in Glasgow, Mont., and subzero readings were forecast in cold wave warnings for the Dakotas and Minnesota.

Eleven deaths were attributed to the storm in Cleveland, one in Toledo and one in Friendsville, Tenn.

PENNSY SOLONS HELP TO SUBDUED PUERTO RICANS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pennsylvanians played a prominent part in yesterday's shooting spree in the House of Representatives although no Keystone State congressmen were among the five wounded.

One Pennsylvania congressman—Republican James E. Van Zandt of Altoona—dashed to the House gallery where the Puerto Ricans were seated when they unexpectedly began firing wildly into the half-filled chamber below.

Van Zandt said he seized one of the men who had been firing a .45 calibre German Luger automatic. Capitol guards assisted him in subduing the man and another man and woman who had been doing the firing.

Another Pennsylvania—Lee Thomas, a 21-year old page from Williamsport—was among those who aided in subduing the attempted assassins.

Ivor D. Fenton of Mahanoy City, who is also a physician, was one of several physicians among the congressmen who rushed to aid the wounded representatives.

"Too Stunned"
Others were busy dodging bullets and like many of their colleagues were too stunned by the sudden fusillade to realize immediately what was taking place.

Republican Paul B. Daguerre of Downingtown said that he and Louis R. Graham, Beaver Republican, "just stood there. Others remained standing, too, just as stunned as we were."

Graham said another Pennsylvanian, Republican Benjamin F. James of Villanova, who was seated next to Graham, exclaimed: "My God, this is real!"

Daguerre said he didn't realize the assailants were shooting with live ammunition until he saw Rep. Bentley (R-Mich.) fall to the floor.

Threw Pamphlets
Democratic Congressman William J. Green of Philadelphia reported some confusion before the actual shooting started. He said pamphlets started coming down from the gallery.

"I looked up toward the gallery and saw a man standing—and loading a revolver. For some reason the thought flashed through my mind that they would shoot blanks."

Reports on the actual number of persons involved in the shooting were confused.
Graham said he was "sure three men were shooting down into the chamber." The woman, he said, was shooting into the ceiling.
Rep. George M. Rhodes, Reading Democrat, said he believed there were five persons involved.

COUNCIL SETS

records to determine the amount authorized in the resolution of several years ago. The trousers should come from that appropriation, he said.

To Inspect Streets
S. Blaine Miller presented a blueprint for "a plan for the development of streets in the Colt Park Development." Council accepted the plan as a "pledge" that the streets will remain available to be ordered at some future date as needed. Miller also presented a deed to the block of Highland Ave. Ext., to Culp Lane on which home have been built. It was accepted. Council then directed that an ordinance be drawn, for action at the next meeting, ordaining the new street.

To expedite the placing of stone on the Highland Ave. extension, council voted to meet April 3 at 1 p.m. for the annual tour of streets, instead of waiting until the usual date in May.

Cost of the stone to be placed on Highland Ave. will be borne by state funds, council said, and to obtain the funds, council must make its inspection, set up its schedule for street repairs and renovations. That schedule must be sent to Harrisburg and the proposed plans checked and approved by a state engineer before the money is made available.

To Purchase Supplies
Council approved a request from the Athletic Association of Gettysburg College for the use of 12 street banners for next weekend when the Middle Atlantic wrestling meet will be held here.

The borough was given permission to go onto Reading Railway land to construct a new storm sewer at the Buford Ave. and the railroad spur. Attorney Eugene Bulett said the planned work will require PUC approval. The state Highway Department is ready to proceed with its share of the work, he added.

Borough Engineer LeRoy Winebrenner was authorized to purchase white and yellow paint in 100-gallon shipments in order to save the borough approximately $35 per 100 gallons. Winebrenner quoted prices on the paint in less than 100-gallon lots and in amounts of 100 gallons or over. The borough uses about 70 gallons per year, Winebrenner said.

He was also ordered to purchase 1,000 gallons of tar under the 1953 order to carry through until the new bids are received in April. The borough uses about 10,000 gallons of tar and 500 tons of stone per year.

Philip Jones, chairman of the utility committee, said his group recommended that council ask the Metropolitan Edison Co. to place new type lights on E. High St.; place a new light at the intersection of Broadway Ext. and Fourth St. and one on N. Washington St. between Lincoln Ave. and Broadway. He said his committee plans to check with the company concerning a light on E. Middle St. "which appears to be buried in a tree."

The borough engineer was authorized to paint yellow lines at the curb at Trinity Evangelical Reformed Church. At present there are no lines and cars park "clear to the corner," Councilman Donald Rebert said, "causing a dangerous condition."

year. The 25-mile levy now collects about $82,000 for school purposes and each additional mill will yield about $3,300. If a per capita tax is levied—a tax abandoned nearly 20 years ago when it was difficult to collect—something over 3,000 could be expected to pay under that levy in the borough.

The current balance in the general fund of the local school district was reported at $4,032 after a $20,000 check was issued to the treasurer of the joint school district bringing Gettysburg's total payments to the jointure so far this fiscal year to $110,000.

State Funds Late
A state appropriation to bolster local school funds is already overdue, the board was told. Fourth class districts which usually receive theirs ahead of third class Gettysburg have not yet gotten their state checks, Dr. Keefe said.

The monthly report of the treasurer, the First National Bank, showed Gettysburg school district expenditures of $20,197 during February. That figure does not include the $20,000 given the joint school district on Monday.

Mrs. Poppay presided at the meeting in Superintendent Keefe's office.

Lenten Services To Begin On Wednesday

Lenten services begin Ash Wednesday at Paradise Catholic Church Wednesday evening with services at the school chapel. There will be services each Wednesday evening of Lent at 7 p.m. for the congregation, who will also be given the opportunity to attend Stations of the Cross with the school children and Sisters at the chapel each Friday afternoon at 2:30 in addition to the regular congregational Stations of the Cross at the parish church at 7 p.m.

Ash Wednesday Mass is at 6:45 a.m. in the school chapel, followed by the distribution of ashes.

Another spiritual activity for parishioners this week is the First Friday devotion for March with Mass at the chapel at 6:45 a.m. In preparation for this observance, the Rev. Francis L. Mignot, acting pastor, will hear confessions at the chapel Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

The First Saturday Mass in honor of Our Lady of Fatima will be at the chapel at 7 a.m., followed by private recitation of the Rosary for World Peace and Social Justice.

Weather Forecast

Extended forecast for Wednesday, March 3, through Sunday, March 7:

Eastern Pennsylvania, eastern New York and mid-Atlantic states: Temperatures will average 3-5 degrees below normal, colder by Wednesday night, milder toward end of week, some light precipitation likely Wednesday, and more general precipitation at end of week.

Western Pennsylvania, western New York, Ohio and West Virginia: Temperature will average 3-5 degrees below normal, becoming colder Wednesday, milder by Saturday and colder Sunday. Light snow likely Wednesday, and again about Saturday.

NEW YORK (AP)—(USDA)—Wholesale egg prices were steady today. Receipts 20,841. (Wholesale selling prices based on exchange and other volume sales). Nearby: Whites: Top quality (48-50 lbs) 47-48; mediums 44-44½. Browns: Top quality (48-50 lbs) 47-48; mediums 43½-44½.

we should give up our freedom. I fear there is a possibility that the determination of his own activities by the individual may be lost for many generations to come," Hoeflich said.

"We are all pretty well fed up by the rash of crystal ball gazers," he said. "Since the end of the war practically every amateur economist has become a soothsayer. I resent anyone telling me my business is going to be off five per cent, and then giving me a mass of statistics. The place of the soothsayers is on the economic council at Washington not on the podium. I don't care what the soothsayers say, I feel that it is up to me to determine what kind of a year I am going to have. Last year I listened to all the soothsayers proclaim that farmers were going to have less income and then my own farm had the best cash year in its history."

Prepare For Change

their 26th birthday."

Some Leave Farms
"Many farmers," he stated, "also believe that there is a law providing for the permanent deferment of all farmers. As a result there has accumulated a large number of agricultural workers who have been deferred for a long time. Some of these men after reaching the age of 26 have, without advising the local boards, left the farm."

The law under which the selective service system now functions makes no provision for the continued deferment or exemption of agricultural workers as a group. It further provides that any registrant who was in a deferred classification on June 19, 1951, and has subsequently been deferred, is liable for induction, if physically fit, up to the age of 35.

Gross said that the selective service must furnish manpower where needed in the national economy and that "this selection necessitates individual consideration by local boards of the case of each and every registrant."

there are many factors causing change other than the purely economic one. Study of economic statistics will not give us the answer as to the future. Any prediction given today is bound to be wrong.

"But it is necessary to know what trends are being shown so that we can meet the future."

"There is no solution to our ills in materialism, mere economics. The force we fight, and to which we have been losing, is a religion, and for its followers it has become the center of their existence."

"The central fact of today is not to be found in statistics but in the psychological mores which guide our course."

"At the end of the century we were still in a period when the individual was the important thing in our outlook. Socialism was being preached, but mostly was being ignored. But the socialists were held together by the bond of the unwanted."

"Between the two World Wars, history was hurried, the science of collectivism advanced with great rapidity, led by the ideas of Marx and the methods of Lenin."

"The effects of three decades of organization and effort by the proponents of socialism are now apparent. Thousands of young men and women, trained in socialism, have gone into fields of public opinion. When Roosevelt took over the reins of government he turned to the graduates of the socialist clubs of prior years. And then there was a transmutation of the American character. Previously a man surrendered his independence only as a last resort. But character was wiped out and the hand out system of government was accepted. There was a loss of incentive. The seed of socialism had become the main trunk of the tree." The speaker was introduced by John A. Hauser.

Sixty-three attended the meeting with President John D. Teeter presiding. Edmund W. Thomas introduced four new members: Raymond H. Seltzer, John C. Williams, Donald B. Trone and Dr. James R. Oyer. Dr. C. Harold Johnson presented "new fathers" John Hostetter and Donald Trone with baby books from the club C. O. Schweitzer, chairman of the rummage sale committee, announced the sale will be held March 19 and 20, with the collection to be held March 18. Proceeds from the sale will go to the Auxiliary of the Warner Hospital.

NEWS ABOUT THE NEWEST LINCOLN

Take a long look at the '54 trend-setter!

Why have Lincoln sales more than doubled in two short years? Why do so many more people want the new Lincoln for 1954? Because people have changed their ideas about fine cars. No longer do they want useless bulk, glitter for the sake of glitter, power for power alone.

The new Lincoln for 1954 keeps pace with these new ideas. The fresh new styling is bold and imaginative; with its low, straight lines it echoes the homes of modern living!

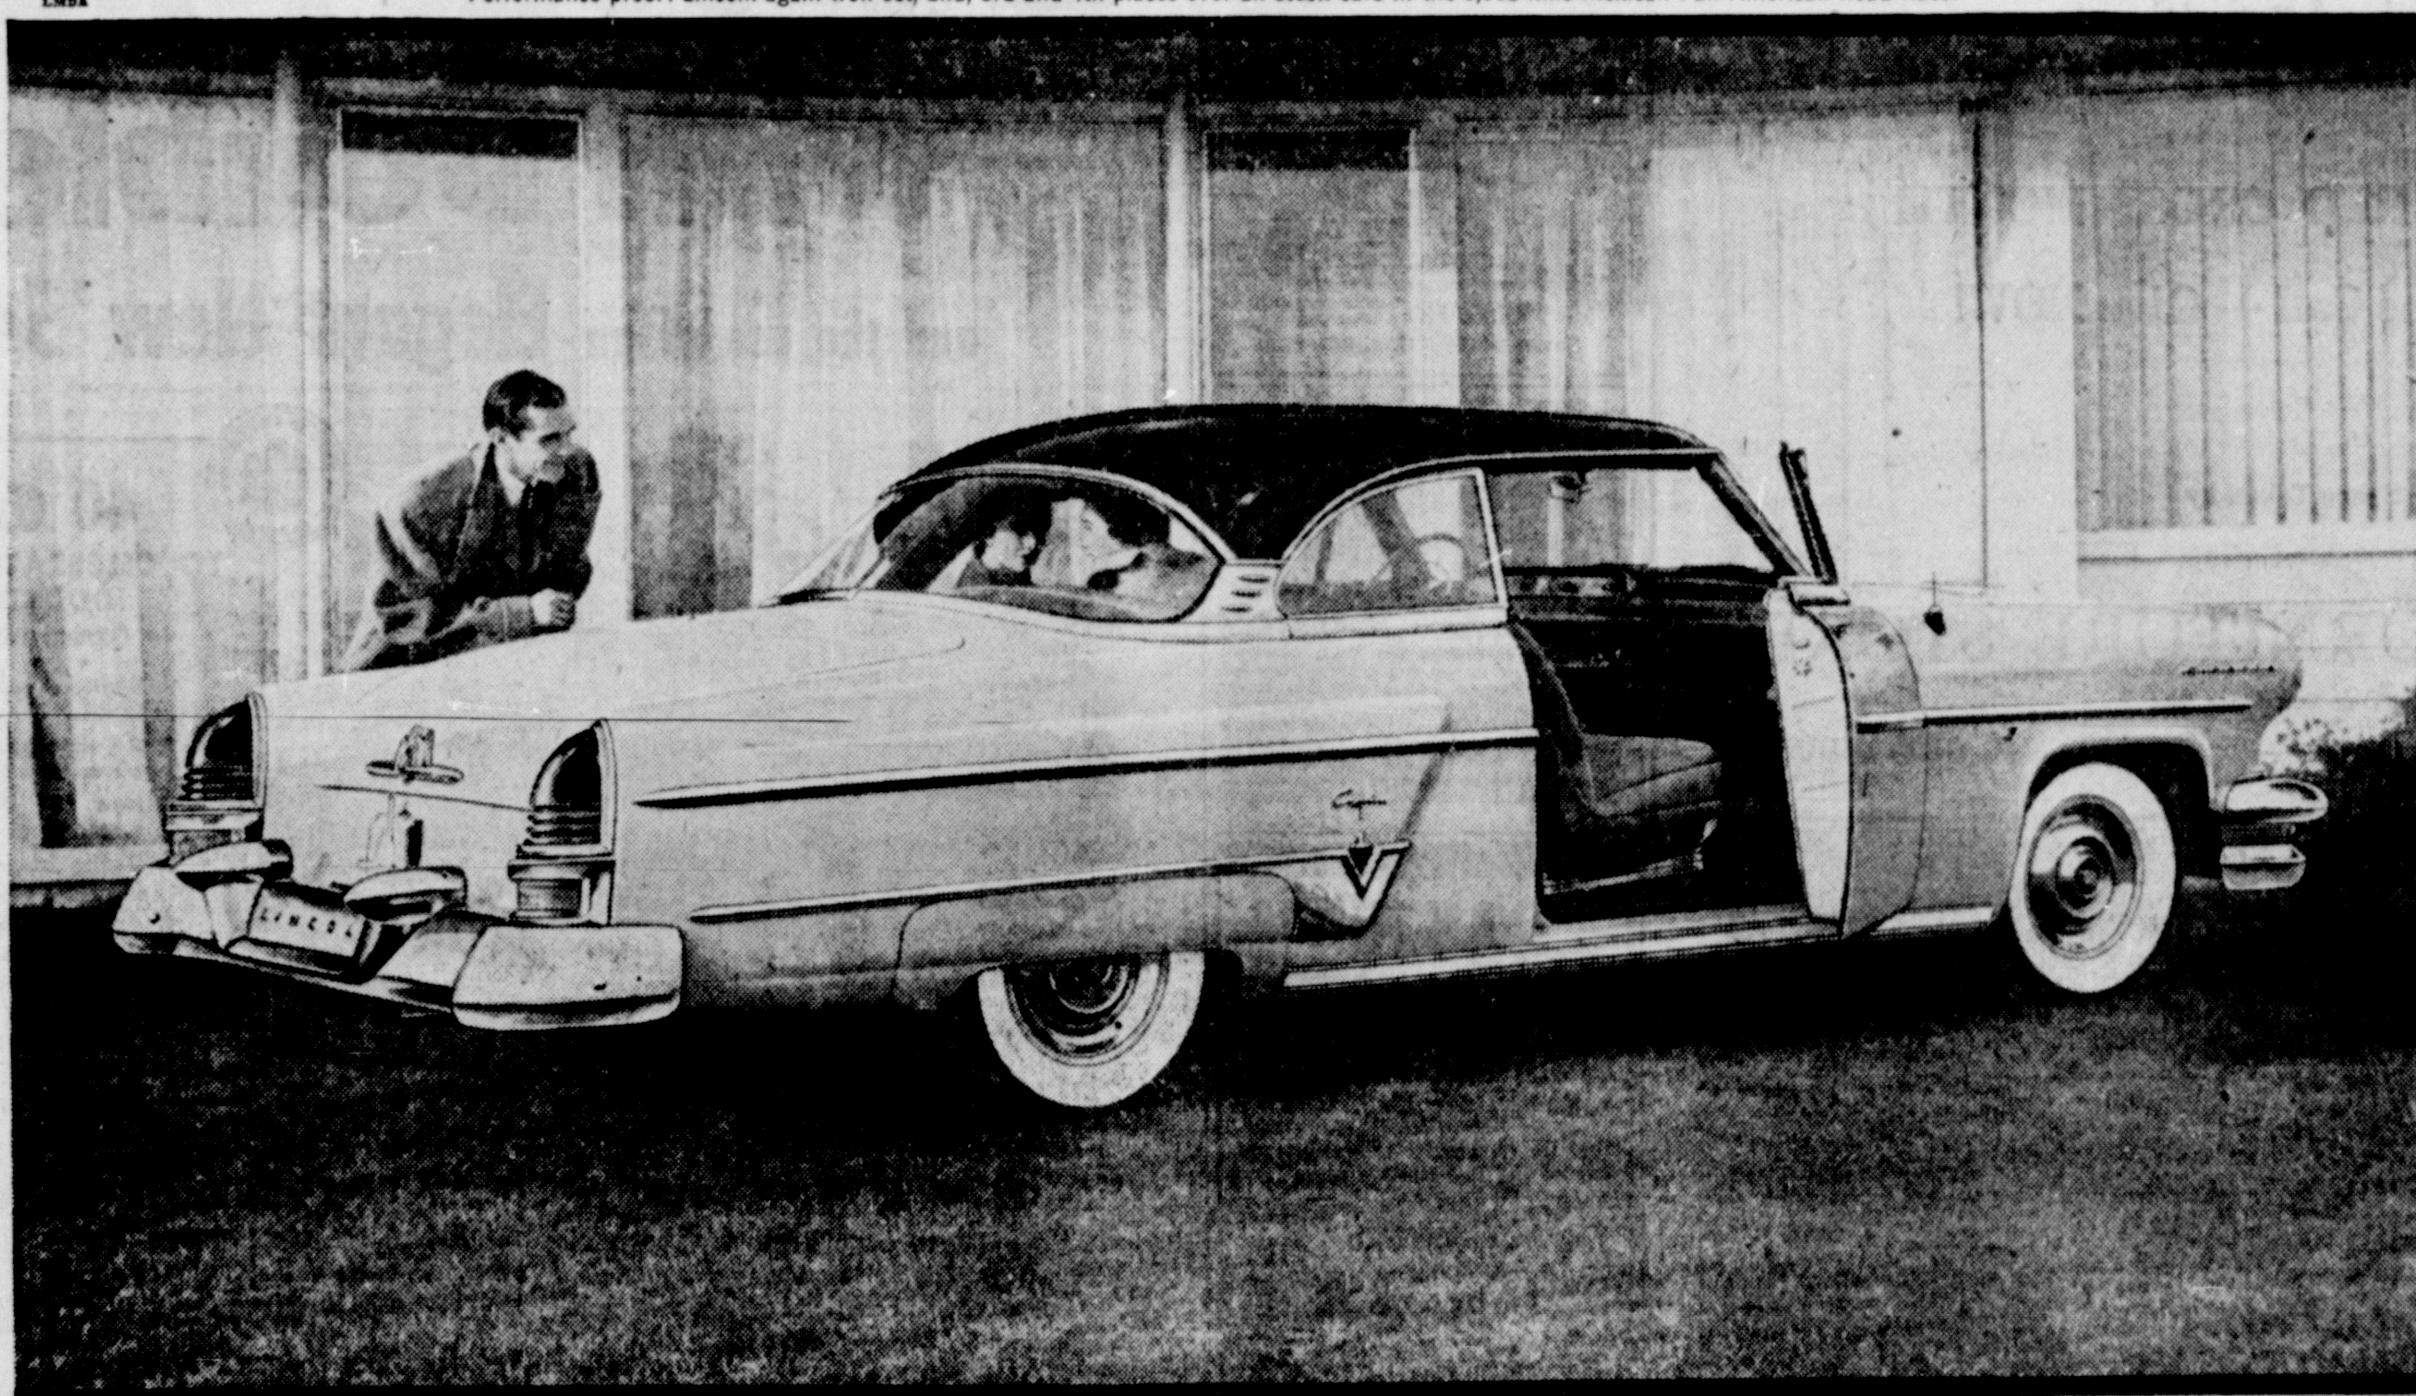

Lincoln's colors, too—inside and out—set a new trend towards the distinctive, the dramatic. Interior fabrics and leathers combine beauty with durability—as do those in today's modern homes.

The real excitement comes when you drive the new Lincoln. Never, we believe, have you felt such smoothness and surge, such sure, safe power. For Lincoln's world-famous V-8 engine has a new automatic 4-barrel carburetor which gives new liveliness.

There's one way to find out why the new Lincoln for '54 is the trend-setter in design and in action. We invite you to try the new Lincoln or Lincoln Capri today.

Performance proof: Lincoln again won 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th places over all stock cars in the 1,912-mile Mexican Pan-American Road Race.

Dulles Travels 83,361 Miles In Little More Than One Year Seeking Peace, U. S. Security

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—John Foster Dulles, 66 last Friday, works like a man trying to keep two steps ahead of a fire in his case, it's the Communist fire.

He has been secretary of state just over a year. In that time he has traveled 83,361 miles in pursuit of peace and American security, the equivalent of more than three times around the globe.

He's been all over Western Europe—including Paris three times, London twice, Bonn twice—and to North Africa, the Middle East, as far west as Korea, as far east as India, and to New York five times.

His routine is: up by 7 a.m., home by 7 p.m., and to bed by midnight. His recreation is limited mostly to reading detective stories, watching birds, and swimming when he can.

—he works at the office Saturday mornings—or on Sunday he has a stenographer come out to his house for dictation.

Diplomatic Dinners

He attends perhaps two diplomatic dinners a week, besides having friends in for private dinners. And State Department people and government officials sometimes visit him at home for uninterrupted conferences.

Yesterday he left for Caracas for the Inter-American Conference and on April 26 is expected to go to Geneva for a conference with Britain, France, Russia and Communist China on Korea and Indochina.

DISTRICT GOALS LISTED BY R. C.

Announcement was made today of the community goals set in the current $14,000 Red Cross campaign which opened Monday and has already brought in $1,137.50.

The goals for the various districts set by Campaign Chairman N. A. Meligakis and his co-chairman, Clerk of the Courts Kenneth W. Johns, follow:

Fairfield, $650; Cashtown, $400; Biglerville, $1,200; York Springs, $550; East Berlin, $500; New Oxford, $1,000; McSherrystown, $1,000; Littlestown, $1,400; Gettysburg R. D., north, $325; New Chester, $100; Abbotstown, $275; Gettysburg residential, $3,000; Arendtsville, $500; Bendersville, $850; Gettysburg R. D., south, $500; and Gettysburg business district, $2,000.

The drive extends through the month of March but every effort is being made in the county to complete the drive as soon as possible.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Black, R. 3, announce the birth of a son today at the Warner Hospital.

A son was also born at the hospital today to Mr. and Mrs. George Overholtzer, Littlestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Heffner, Orrtanna, are the parents of a son born Monday at the hospital.

ent at the council session, agreed. Suggests Court Fight

A letter signed by C. J. Wilson observed: "In regards to keeping of chickens in Gettysburg, I have a few laying hens and also a few peepies for my own use and I am going to keep them until you prove to me in court that they cause any harm or do anybody any harm in any way. If you can get a jury that says they do, then I will stop keeping them. . . . I pay over $200 taxes a year and should have what I want as long as it is no trouble to anyone else in any way."

Mr. Wilson also commented on dogs, in rather uncomplimentary fashion, and concluded by advising council: "You better live up to the laws you have made before making more. What are you doing with your parking law made last fall?"

Another letter, signed only "A Taxpayer for many years," observed: "I hope when you call a meeting to draw up an ordinance on our chicken houses, God will whisper in your ear not to take our last bite out of our mouth in our old days."

At the conclusion of the discussion, Council President H. M. Oyler observed that it had no petition before it from the Board of Health, that it had no other complaint concerning the keeping of horses, chickens and rabbits, and that council "never has rushed through these things and if anything comes up, you will have plenty of notification, and no action will take place quickly. Personally, I'm in favor of keeping horses and pets and I feel that is the opinion of council."

The discussion concluded with Councilman Fox claiming that the other animals make less dirt than dogs, and when they do it's used for fertilizer.

A borough ordinance some years ago ended the keeping of hogs in the borough.

hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kness, York Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Kuhn, Bendersville, became the parents of a son born Monday at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Swope, East Berlin R. 2, are the parents of a son born Monday at the Hanover Hospital.

CHIMNEY FIRE

The Fairfield Fire Department was called Monday morning to extinguish a chimney fire on the Allen Shryock farm along the Tract Rd.

BOY SCOUTS AND LEADERS GIVEN AWARDS MONDAY

Boy Scouts and guests of Troop 79, St. James Lutheran Church, received awards and witnessed the showing of the 1953 Scout Jamboree film, Monday night, at the annual troop supper held in the church dining room.

Dr. Frank T. Watson, Black Walnut District commissioner, addressed the gathering of more than 90 Scouts, parents and guests and presented Tenderfoot badges to: Barry Bixler, Dick Boyer, Randy Eyer, Charles Kemper, Nicky Nichols, Skip Sheely, Don Smith and Billy Swope.

Watson also presented Harmon Furney, troop scoutmaster, with a plaque for scout and parent attendance at the recent district "Court of Honor," and gave Troop 79 representatives the Liberty Bell award for "quality of program and increased membership" under the "Forward on Liberty's Team" program.

Gifts Presented

Mrs. Philip Neth, president of the Good Samaritan Sunday School Class which sponsors the troop, presented Mr. and Mrs. Furney with several gifts, after which the scoutmaster spoke concerning the swimming program, Camp Tuckahoe, and the new Explorer Post, being formed under the direction of Crosby Hartzell, Robert Snare and Donald Joseph.

The Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, pastor of St. James, expressed the appreciation of the troop and church to Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bream for the Trust Fund which they have established in memory of their son, Herbert, Robert Snare, of Gettysburg College, was introduced as a new scout leader for Troop 79.

Scouts from the Orrtanna area were brought to the church for the showing of the Jamboree film. Sgt. Donald Evans, Air Force ROTC, Gettysburg College, ran the projector. The Coyote, Rattlesnake and Apache patrols concluded the program with brief skits. Dr. Gresh closed the meeting with the benediction. Wives of the troop committee formed the supper planning group and Crosby Hartzell, chairman of the troop committee, presided as toastmaster.

Try To Draft Riegler For York School Job

Despite newspaper reports from York of a "draft Riegler" movement there for the York County school superintendency, H. Edgar Riegler, Spring Grove, formerly of Arendtsville, who announced several weeks ago for the Adams County Superintendency, is still in the race here.

In a telegram to school backers here this morning, Mr. Riegler said that "in spite of anything you read in the York newspapers, I'm still with you up there."

York reports said that a group of directors there who want Riegler to run for the York County Superintendency claimed they have the support of more than half the directors in that county where Riegler has been assistant superintendent for the last four years. H. R. Mutch, supervising principal of the Southern Joint School District in York County, is the only announced candidate for the York job.

M'CARTHY ASKS EXPLANATION ON M'LEOD

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said today he will demand an official explanation of Secretary of State Dulles' order stripping R. W. Scott McLeod of authority over State Department personnel.

The department announced yesterday that McLeod, a close personal friend of McCarthy's, will have charge only of security and consular matters from now on. He has been handling both security and personnel for the department and recently stated he regards these as "inseparable functions."

As personnel officer, he had hiring and firing powers.

Stevens To Appear

Learning of the order, McCarthy told newsmen, "This will make it infinitely more difficult for McLeod to do a good job" of ridding the department of subversives. He also said the new order "just doesn't look good on the surface."

McCarthy injected himself into the McLeod situation as he waited for the appearance of Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens either Thursday or next Monday at what probably will be a hearing closed to television, radio, press and public.

The McLeod order prompted Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) to propose in an interview that Secretary Dulles be called before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to explain McLeod's "activities" as department security officer.

McLeod recently aroused Democratic ire by making a series of five Lincoln Day speeches for the Republican National Committee. Some Democrats contended that a man in McLeod's position should not take part in politics.

McLeod refused comment on the new turn of events, but it was believed he would not quit his $15,000-a-year post.

Five Congressmen

began flying from desks and plaster from walls and ceiling.

Van Zandt Helps

One member, Rep. Van Zandt (R-Pa.), sped upstairs in time to help disarm one of the gunmen.

In the gallery a number of spectators also helped overpower three of the assailants as their weapons were emptied and they tried frantically to reload and resume their barrage.

There was a wild melee in the gallery itself and in the corridor outside as guards rushed in.

Through it all the Puerto Ricans screamed for independence for their island homeland as they sprayed bullets over the chamber from ladders held grimly in both hands. After her pistol was empty Mrs. Lebron waved a Puerto Rican flag as she had at the outset to signal the outbreak.

Mrs. Lebron insisted at police headquarters that members of the group regard themselves as patriots—not criminals.

Are "Nationalists"

The dark-haired woman said the shooting was intended "to bring the attention of the people to the plight of Puerto Rico. It is a country that is not free."

Those held are members of the Nationalist party, the same group represented by the two men who tried in 1950 to assassinate the then President Harry Truman.

The party is only a small minority in the island commonwealth.

Most Puerto Ricans have expressed preference to remain under U.S. authority, although they have been offered independence any time they want it.

Anti-independence forces have contended the islanders would lose heavily in American aid if separated from this country, and that the islanders are not yet capable of complete self government.

IST ADD 5 CONGRESSMEN

The woman and two men were disarmed and taken into custody in a riotous scene just outside the House visitors' gallery. The third man was arrested later at a bus terminal.

Stunned congressional leaders took immediate steps to tighten security regulations and prevent a recurrence of such a tragedy—the first known instance of bloodshed during an actual session of the House or Senate.

Miraculous Escape

That more lawmakers and spectators weren't hurt appeared nothing short of miraculous.

An estimated 20 to 30 heavy caliber bullets fired from Ruger-type pistols blazed into the House chamber, nicking seats and walls, piercing the new ceiling, chipping plaster and causing everyone to duck for cover.

Several bullets crashed into the wall just a few inches above the seats in the rear of the chamber occupied by page boys. The boys scrambled under seats or darted out the nearest doors.

Two pellets burrowed into the heavy table at which Republican leaders sit. Seated there at the time were Majority Leader Halleck of Indiana and his assistant, Rep. Arends of Illinois. Neither was hurt, although Arends was nicked by flying splinters. So was Rep. Holmes (R-Wash.), who was standing nearby.

250 In House

About 250 House members were on hand at the time, about 2:30 p.m., having been summoned to the chamber only a short time earlier to debate a bill dealing with importation of Mexican farm workers. The visitors' galleries were less than half filled. About a dozen newsmen sat in the press seats in the same general section, but 50 feet or more away from where the Puerto Ricans sat.

Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) adjourned the House in short order while doctors and police took over.

The shooting lasted only about a minute.

Martin was counting a standing vote when it started. He never finished.

From a corner of the public gallery to his extreme left and behind him, a volley of shots rang out. Almost everyone at first thought pranksters had tossed a string of firecrackers. Even Rep. Roberts said he thought it was firecrackers "until I saw blood on my leg."

The grim seriousness of the situation became apparent when the Puerto Ricans were spotted spewing lead from pistols firmly gripped between both hands.

One Reloaded Gun

One of the gunman had time to reload his weapon with a 10-bullet clip before being subdued.

Mrs. Lolita Lebron, 34, of New York City, admitted leader of the group, appeared to be having difficulty controlling her pistol. It spouted flame and bullets toward the ceiling, punctuating the woman's cries of "My country is not free; free Puerto Rico!"

As she half ran and was half dragged from the gallery, she tossed into the air the flag of Puerto Rico and shouted again.

Police, doorkeepers and others rushed for the gallery and the door leading from it. Quickly they grabbed three of the assailants and either held them firmly or pinned them to the marble floor in a general scrimmage.

One of those who helped was William Belcher, an assistant doorkeeper, who suffered a heart attack after the excitement died down, and was taken to a hospital. The three assailants were hustled off to police headquarters along with a fourth captured shortly afterwards. Police said the quartet carried extra ammunition.

Four Or Booked

At police headquarters the four were booked as:

Mrs. Lebron; Rafael Concepcion Miranda, 25; Andres F. Cordero, 29; and Irving Flores, 27, all of New York City. All were charged with felonious assault to kill, a charge which carries a maximum penalty of 15 years.

Each of the four was held, at a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Cyril S. Lawrence, on bail of $100,000.

Also being held without formal charge were three young men picked up away from the Capitol. Police said there was no certainty they had a part in the incident. They were listed as Montes Rivera, 20, Tampa, Fla.; his brother Israel, 23, Deerfield Beach, Fla.; and Pablo Mateo, 18, Tampa.

Police said all four charged were members of the Puerto Rican Nationalists, whose leader is Pedro Albizu Campos. He was pardoned four months ago after serving about two years of prison sentences totaling 54 years as a result of a 1950 riot in San Juan in which 30 persons were killed. Doctors have said he suffers hallucinations.

Planned Attack On Ike

U. E. Baughman, chief of the Secret Service, said last night his agency "got information several months ago" that the same Nationalist group might try to harm President Eisenhower. He declined to discuss details. In Hartford, Conn., a Puerto Rican was held last night on a charge of threatening to kill the President.

Tom Kennamer, chief House doorkeeper, said Mrs. Lebron's purse contained a note in which she took sole responsibility for the House affair and described it as "a cry for victory in our struggle for independence."

Police Chief Robert V. Murray said Mrs. Lebron, a recent divorcee, and Cordero and Rafael Miranda admitted the shooting. Deputy Detective Edgar E. Scott said the woman named Flores as also being in the group at the Capitol.

Murray quoted the woman as saying they had no particular target but were "just shooting at random to attract attention to their cause."

Senate Adjourns

The Senate adjourned shortly after the shooting; the White House canceled tonight's scheduled reception for congressmen. Secretary of Agriculture Benson and Secretary of the Interior McKay called off their planned visit to Puerto Rico; and Gov. Louis Munoz Marin issued a statement in Puerto Rico condemning the shooting as an act of savagery.

Republican and Democratic leaders of the House huddled and agreed that hereafter no visitors may enter the House galleries without admission cards issued by members. These cards had not been required up to today except for reserved sections.

Hereafter, also, Speaker Martin said, additional city police will help maintain order at the Capitol and extra precautions will be taken against the carrying of weapons. Visitors in the past have been required to check cameras and other objects they carry, but haven't been searched.

Had Guns Under Coat

Police said the Puerto Ricans carried their guns under their coats, and were asked only whether they had cameras.

Only once in previous history, Martin said, had there been anything approaching yesterday's episode, and it was a comparative dud. About 15 years ago a disgruntled citizen arose in the gallery, brandished a loaded revolver and threatened to start shooting. He was placated by former Rep. Melvin Maas of Minnesota and tossed the gun to Maas on the House floor before yielding to police.
